The Association for marine professionals

The Marine Biological Association

"The future now is in the hands of those who understand the real importance of the blue part of the planet"
Dr Sylvia Earle Hon.MBA

Join a global community promoting marine science excellence.
Professional Membership of the MBA provides:

- use of the post-nominal Mem.MBA
- The Marine Biologist magazine
- access to an Experts Database to connect with other professionals
- opportunities to influence marine policy
- a Certificate of Membership
- an exclusive MBA pin badge
- access to research awards and grants

And much more!

Providing an authoritative and independent voice for the marine biological community.
