

Clause type and illocutionary force

RODNEY HUDDLESTON

- 1 Type as a grammatical system of the clause 853
- 2 Distinctive grammatical properties of the major clause types 855
- 3 Some semantic and pragmatic preliminaries 858
 - 3.1 Illocutionary force 858
 - 3.2 Indirect speech acts 861
- 4 Kinds of question 865
 - 4.1 Question as a semantic and as a pragmatic category 865
 - 4.2 Summary classification of questions 867
 - 4.3 Polar questions 868
 - 4.4 Alternative questions 868
 - 4.5 Variable questions 872
 - 4.6 Direction questions 876
 - 4.7 Biased questions 879
 - 4.7.1 Kinds and degrees of bias 880
 - 4.7.2 Declarative questions 881
 - 4.7.3 Negative interrogative questions 883
 - 4.7.4 Positively- and negatively-oriented polarity-sensitive items (some vs any, etc.) 884
 - 4.8 Echo questions 886
 - 4.8.1 The contrast between echo and ordinary questions 887
 - 4.8.2 The grammatical form of variable echo questions 888
 - 4.8.3 The form of polar echo questions 889
 - 4.8.4 Repetition vs clarification echoes 890
- 5 Interrogative tags and parentheticals 891
 - 5.1 The formation of interrogative tags 892
 - 5.2 The use and interpretation of tags 894
 - 5.3 Parentheticals 895
- 6 The presuppositions of information questions 897
 - 6.1 Q–A presuppositions of alternative questions 897
 - 6.2 Q–A presuppositions of polar questions 898
 - 6.3 Q–A presuppositions of variable questions 899
 - 6.4 Rejection of Q–A presuppositions 900
 - 6.5 Cancellation of Q–A presuppositions 900
 - 6.6 Secondary presuppositions 901
- 7 Interrogative words and phrases 902
 - 7.1 Which 902

- 7.2 Whose 904
- 7.3 Who and whom 904
- 7.4 When 905
- 7.5 Where 905
- 7.6 Why 906
- 7.7 How 907
- 7.8 What 909
- 7.9 Upward percolation of the interrogative feature: interrogative phrases 910
- 7.10 Upward percolation of the question variable: the questioned element 912
- 7.11 Open interrogatives as an unbounded dependency construction 914
- 7.12 Ambiguities concerning the role of an interrogative phrase in complex clauses 914
- 7.13 Modification of interrogative words 916
- 7.14 Complex-intransitive interrogatives: S–P–PC vs PC–P–S 917
- 8 Exclamatives and exclamations 918
 - 8.1 The syntax of exclamatives 918
 - 8.1.1 Exclamative how 919
 - 8.1.2 Exclamative what 919
 - 8.1.3 Position of the subject 920
 - 8.1.4 Verbless exclamatives 921
 - 8.2 Meaning and use of exclamative main clauses 922
 - 8.3 Non-exclamative exclamations 923
- 9 Imperatives and directives 924
 - 9.1 Subtypes of imperative clauses 924
 - 9.2 Ordinary imperatives 925
 - 9.2.1 Omissibility of the subject 925
 - 9.2.2 Subject vs vocative in imperatives 927
 - 9.2.3 Imperatives with auxiliary do 928
 - 9.2.4 Imperatives as directives 929
 - 9.2.5 Agentivity in imperatives 931
 - 9.3 1st person inclusive let-imperatives 934
 - 9.3.1 Grammatical properties 934
 - 9.3.2 Use of 1st person inclusive imperatives 936
 - 9.4 Open let-imperatives 936
 - 9.5 Imperatives interpreted as conditionals 937
 - 9.6 Non-imperative directives 939
 - 9.6.1 Interrogatives as directives 939
 - 9.6.2 Declaratives as directives 941
 - 9.6.3 Non-finite and verbless directives 942
 - 9.7 Imperatives with interrogative tags 942
 - 9.8 No subordinate imperative construction 943
- 10 Minor clause types 944