

A Bold New Voice in the Dialogue on Race in America

Why Race Matters Race Differences and What They Mean By Michael Levin

Professor of Philosophy, The Graduate Center, City University of New York

"Philosopher Michael Levin has delivered one of the most authoritative and incisive treatises on the importance of race ever written. Why Race Matters is must reading for anyone interested in the debates on race, IQ, crime, welfare, affirmative action, and multiculturalism. Levin cross-examines the stockpiles of statistical data, psychological test scores, and behavioral genetic analyses to brilliantly illuminate the logical pitfalls and stumbling blocks in so much of what has been written on the subject. His powerful logic digs deep and his courageous inferences vault forward. With panache and the occasional snort of humor, Levin seems to be always bang on target." —J. Philippe Rushton, John Simon Guggenheim Fellow and Professor of Psychology, University of Western Ontario

"This is social philosophy of the first rank. . . by far the most important work since Gunnar Myrdal's An American Dilemma, and it corrects many of Myrdal's most egregious errors. . . provides a breath of fresh air, straightforward lucidity in what has become a miasma of foul obfuscation and scientific dishonesty."

—Glayde Whitney
past President of the Behavioral Genetics Association

"A wonderful book, filled with ideas that made me think for hour upon hour. Anyone who wishes to discuss race intelligently should read it."

—Professor Robert Weissberg
University of Illinois

"This is a premier work of 20th century social science. . . and will probably be the target of similarly intemperate abuse. But men and women of good will, of all races, must insist that race questions be discussed in light of the ascertained facts which Professor Levin has expertly gathered together. It is as impossible for ignorance to generate enlightened policy as for stones to nourish."

—Wallace I. Matson
Professor of Philosophy, University of California, Berkeley

Opposing the denial of race differences and the claim that they do not matter anyway, Michael Levin explains why these differences do matter. Finding significant genetic difference between races, Levin unflinchingly considers the broad social and philosophical implications of these variations. No one making an effort to think clearly about race can ignore Why Race Matters.

Permissible Killing

The Self-Defence Justification of Homicide

Suzanne Uniacke

Do individuals have a positive right of self-defence? And if so, what are the limits of this right? These are two of the questions explored by Suzanne Uniacke in this comprehensive philosophical discussion of the principles relevant to self-defence as a moral and legal justification of homicide.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Professor Anthony O'Hear, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory. Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

² R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 178 (October 1971), 295.

³ Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

⁴ W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Professor O'Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Professor O'Hear at Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0AG. All other correspondence should also be addressed to the Institute.
