

HOW'S YOUR JOB GOING?

AudioScript

B

Listen to these people talk about their jobs. Do they like their jobs? Check Yes or No under each picture.

Alex

Anna: What's it like working with sick people all day, Alex?

Alex: It's difficult because many patients need a lot of care.

Anna: Oh, you give them medicine and maybe change bandages?

Alex: Yes, and we have to write everything on charts for the doctors.

Anna: Anything else?

Alex: We help people get ready for tests. Sometimes they're pretty nervous.

Anna: Sounds like it's a stressful job.

Alex: Yeah, but I really enjoy it. I feel good doing it.

I love helping people, and they always thank me.

Anna: Well, good for you.

Mary

Frank: How's work, Mary?

Mary: I'm busy all the time! I work about twelve hours a day.

Frank: You mean you show houses to people all day?

Mary: That's only one thing. I also help people decide on a price.

Frank: What else?

Mary: I suggest small improvements.

Frank: Of course. So they can sell the house more quickly.

Mary: Exactly. And there's a lot more.

Frank: Like what?

Mary: Like look for a new job. I work long hours, but I'm not making any money. I only sold one small house last month.

David

Rita: So, how's your new job going, David?

David: It's going really well. I started two months ago, and it's great.

Rita: What countries are you flying to?

David: Mostly those in South America. I love it!

Rita: Do you have time to look around the different cities?

David: I'm usually too tired after we land.

Rita: Well, I know you serve drinks and meals and explain safety. What other duties do you have?

David: Let's see, we help nervous or sick passengers. We also make sure people obey the safety rules.

C

Listen again. Write two things each person does.
