Unit 2

Street interview

Reporter: Do you think this city is a better place to live than in the past?

Maria: In general, yes, it is. There is less pollution these days. There is less crime, too, but we still need more police officers.

Reporter: And what other things need to be improved?

Maria: Well, there isn't enough good public transportation, so there are too many cars on the streets. There's always too much traffic downtown, and there aren't enough parking spaces.

Reporter: Thank you for your opinion.

Moving day

I moved into my new apartment yesterday, and it's really nice. It's very large, so it's not as cramped as the old one. My old place was not big enough for me. More importantly, my new apartment is brighter. My old place was too dark. Unfortunately, the neighborhood is not as convenient as my old one. There are not enough buses, and there's no subway nearby, so I drive to work. Shopping is also more difficult. The stores are really nice, but they're too expensive for me! I hope you can come and see it soon.
