QUIZ

A Write six sentences about a celebration. Use the words before, when, and after. Do not write the name of the celebration.

	Before we go to the ceremony, we put on caps and gowns.
	When we walk onto the stage, we get our diplomas.
	After we get our diplomas, a photographer takes our picture.

B PAIR WORK Rewrite the sentences without the words before, when, and after. Then exchange papers. Complete the sentences and guess the celebration.

	_____ we go to the ceremony, we put on caps and gowns.
	_____ we walk onto the stage, we get our diplomas.
	_____ we get our diplomas, a photographer takes our picture.

A: Is it a graduation ceremony?

B: That's right.
