

How to Use this Checklist

- Please enter your name and book title/ISBN in the column provided.
- Full instructions for providing suitable artwork files is located here:
https://www.cambridge.org/authorhub/application/files/2615/5232/1926/40433_Figures_web.pdf

- List each item separately, even if they will be combined into a single element. E.g., Fig 1.1a, Fig 1.1b, Fig 2.1.
- Separate high-resolution files should be provided for each item, numbered decimally by chapter (unless advised otherwise).
- File names should match the in-text citations in your manuscript.

Figure type:

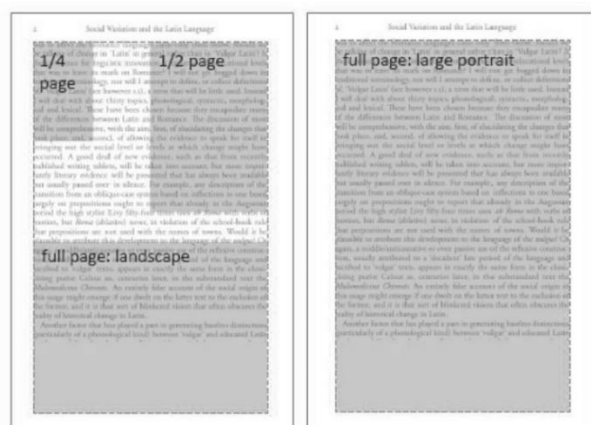

- All illustrations/tables/charts etc will be reproduced in black and white unless specified in your contract.

N.B: Files will be reproduced in the quality provided. It is not possible to improve the quality of halftones/photographs.

Preferred size: Sizing options are based on proportions of the page width.

- Give the fraction of the page's width that your image should be - i.e. 1/4 page-width, full page width.

See the diagram below for clarification.

Permissions:

Full advice about obtaining permissions for third-party materials is provided here:

<https://www.cambridge.org/authorhub/application/files/9116/2679/7311/AHAcquiringRights.pdf>

- You must provide permissions information even if you are the copyright holder or if you created the materials yourself.
- Items adapted from the work of others or previously reproduced in other publications will still require permission.
- If the rights holder has provided a credit line to be included in the book, include this in the box provided.
- Permission must be secured for all formats - print and digital.
