Think

1. Guidelines for Contributors
The editor welcomes accessible contributions from philosophers and other thinkers on any topic broadly related either to philosophy or to the development of thinking skills. It is anticipated that most contributors will be academics.

Contributions should be below 4,000 words (unless otherwise agreed with the editor). Very short pieces are welcome.

Think welcomes submissions which are clear and to the point and in the straightforward prose characteristic of the best philosophy. At the same time, the editor would also like to encourage the use of imaginative and unusual ways of making ideas engaging and accessible, e.g. through the use of dialogue, humour, illustrations (black and white: line and photos), examples taken from the media, etc. Papers engaging with some topical debate are especially welcome.

Contributors should presuppose no philosophical background knowledge on the part of the reader. The use of jargon and logical notation, especially where unexplained, should be avoided. Please avoid including notes and references if at all possible.

Contributors should be assigned their copyright (on certain conditions) to the Royal Institute of Philosophy so that their interests may be safeguarded.

Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

The editor has the assistance of a panel of referees drawn from the Institute’s Council. Please include with your contribution a brief statement of your position and institution (where relevant).

2. Submissions
Contributions (as Word documents) and communications should be sent to:

Stephen Law (editor)
THINK
Heythrop College
University of London
Kensington Square
London
W8 5HQ
Email: think@royalinstitutephilosophy.org

3. Format and Style
The editor would be grateful if final submissions were in the Think house style. Please use single quotation marks (double when embedded). Please italicize rather than underline.

Where it is absolutely unavoidable that references be included, they should be incorporated into the text (preferably) or else appear as endnotes in the Think style. Examples:

Fred Author, Title of Book (Place: Publisher, 2002), 23.

The Royal Institute of Philosophy
Think is published on behalf of the Royal Institute of Philosophy, which was founded in 1925.
The Institute welcomes as members any who are interested in philosophy. There are branches of the Institute in many regional centres, details of which are on the Institute’s website www.royalinstitutephilosophy.org

The annual membership is £25, $45 in the USA and Canada. For full-time students and those registered as unemployed the membership is £10 or $22. Members receive copies of the journal Philosophy and are entitled to a special rate subscription to Think. Applications should be made to The Secretary, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H OAR or via the Institute’s website.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world’s forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
