Choosing Life, Choosing Death

The Tyranny of Autonomy in Medical Ethics and Law

by Charles Foster

'In a highly engaging, accessible account, [Charles Foster] challenges many of the views which have become orthodox within the academic community.' Jonathan Herring, Exeter College, Oxford University

Autonomy is a vital principle in medical law and ethics which occupies a prominent place in all medico-legal and ethical debate. But there is a dangerous presumption that it should have the only vote, or at least the casting vote. This book is an assault on that presumption, and an audit of autonomy's extraordinary status.

Reforming the French Law of Obligations

Comparative Reflections on the Avant-projet de réforme du droit des obligations et de la prescription ('the Avant-projet Catala')

Edited by John Cartwright, Stefan Vogenauer and Simon Whittaker

The 2005 Avant-projet de réforme du droit des obligations et de la prescription, also dubbed the Avant-projet Catala, suggests the most far-reaching reform of the French Civil code since it came into force in 1804. This volume is the first publication to introduce the reform proposals to an English speaking audience. It contains the official English translation of the text, and distinguished private lawyers from both England and France analyse particularly interesting aspects of the substantive draft provisions in a comparative perspective.
