Instructions to Authors

Submitted articles and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editors, Economics and Philosophy, Dept of Philosophy, The University, St Andrews, Fife KY16 9AL, Scotland. Books for review in Economics and Philosophy should be sent to Professor M. Schabas, Dept of Philosophy, York University, 4700 Keele Street, North York, Ontario, Canada M3J 1P3. Correspondence may also be sent by e-mail to: econphil@st-andrews.ac.uk.

The journal publishes papers in English only. However, the editors are willing to consider initial submissions in French, and advise the authors whether to resubmit an English version. The final decision will be made on the basis of the English version only.

Please send four copies of submitted articles, in double-spaced type. Please send any covering letter in duplicate. Include an abstract of one hundred words or fewer. We are pleased to receive copies printed on both sides of the paper. The copies sent to referees will be anonymous, so the author's name and address should appear on a separate title page and not in the rest of the article. Please also remove other clues to your identity. Repeat the title of the article at the beginning of the text to be sent to referees. Submitted articles will not be returned to authors.

Authors of accepted articles will be asked to prepare a final version in the journal's style, following instructions that the editors will provide, and to submit it on disk together with a version on paper.

Submitting an article to Economics and Philosophy implies that it has not been published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission to publish any material for which they do not own the copyright. They will be asked to assign the copyright of their article, under certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press. Authors of articles will receive 25 offprints of their article free of charge; additional copies may be purchased if ordered at proof stage on the form provided. (In the case of joint contributions, offprints will be sent to the first named author unless otherwise requested.)

Philosophy

Editor: ANTHONY O'HEAR
UNIVERSITY OF BRADFORD

Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Philosophy, the journal of the Royal Institute of Philosophy, fulfils a dual role: it is one of the leading academic journals of philosophy, but it also serves the philosophical interests of specialists in other fields including:

• law • language • literature and the arts • medicine
• politics • religion • science • education
• psychology • history • those of the general reader.

Contributors are required to avoid needless technicality of language and presentation. Each issue contains an editorial on a topic of philosophical or public interest, and a 'New Books' section. Three special supplements are regularly published with each volume of Philosophy. These supplements are distinguished publications in their own right, and are derived from the conferences and lecture series organised by the Royal Institute of Philosophy.

Introducing...

Social Philosophy & Policy

Editor: Ellen Frankel Paul, Social Philosophy and Policy Center, Bowling Green State University

Associate Editors: Fred Miller, Jr. and Jeffrey Paul, Social Philosophy and Policy Center

Social Philosophy & Policy is an interdisciplinary journal with an emphasis on the philosophical underpinnings of enduring social policy debates.

The semi-annual issues are thematic in format, examining a specific area of concern with contributions from scholars in philosophy, economics, political science and law. While not primarily a journal of policy prescriptions, articles typically connect theory with practice.

Papers are submitted upon invitation from the Editors and represent a broad spectrum of political and philosophical views on a given theme. The editors, with the aid of a distinguished editorial board, seek contributions from well-known scholars as well as promising younger researchers.

The 1996 issues will be 'Community, Individual and the State' and 'Scientific Innovation, Philosophy, and Public Policy'.

Subscription Information

Social Philosophy and Policy is published twice a year in Winter and Summer. Volume 13 in 1996: £54 for institutions; £21 for individuals; airmail costs £10 per year extra. ISSN 0265-0525.

"Social Philosophy & Policy is that rare journal which brings together the best in philosophy, politics, law, and economics. The distinguished author whom it publishes in its timely symposia produce works which are required reading both for specialists in these areas and for the general reader."
