The Development of American Torpedoes in World War II

ROBERT GANNON

"The U.S. Navy's failure to provide its submarines with effective torpedoes was one of the great near disasters of the Second World War. Gannon offers us a finely crafted, thoroughly informative study of the failure and the successful technical effort to develop winning weapons for the fleet."

Toward a Jurisprudence of Substantive Due Process

EDWARD KEYNES

"Keynes illuminates a central and fundamental concept of American constitutionalism: the Due Process Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. His analysis yields a deeper understanding of due process, both procedural and substantive, and offers sound guidance for a better methodology from the courts."

—Louis Fisher,
author of American Constitutional Law
