The Journal of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era is a peer-reviewed journal published quarterly by the Society for Historians of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era (SHGAPE), with assistance from the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center, Illinois State University, and the College of William and Mary. It publishes original scholarly essays covering the period 1865 through the 1920s and reviews scholarly books on that time period.

Subscription rates are $40 for individuals, $80 for institutions, $15 for graduate students with proof of enrollment, $50 for joint membership (one Journal subscription and two memberships to the Society). There is an additional charge of $5 for subscriptions from outside of the United States, including Canada and Mexico. For subscriptions or single issues please contact Suzanne Darr, Executive Assistant, Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center, Spiegel Grove, Fremont, OH 43420, or <sdarr@rbhayes.org>. Subscriptions includes SHGAPE membership, which also brings a semi-annual Newsletter and notices of SHGAPE sessions at annual conferences of the American Historical Association and the Organization of American Historians.

Manuscripts should be sent in triplicate to the editor, Alan Lessoff, Department of History, Illinois State University, Normal, IL 61790-4420. Before submitting any manuscript, please consult the website <www.jgape.org> for details on correct format and citation style. Information may also be obtained at the email address <ahlesso@ilstu.edu>.

Reforging the White Republic
Race, Religion, and American Nationalism, 1865-1898
EDWARD J. BLUM

“Explores the ways that evangelical Protestantism in the North forged a new sense of American nationalism that privileged white Americans at the expense of African Americans who remained segregated and politically disenfranchised. A first-rate intellectual and cultural history.”—Harry S. Stout, coeditor, Religion and the American Civil War

 Conflicting Worlds: New Dimensions of the American Civil War
T. Michael Parrish, Editor

Illustrated, $54.95

The American Discovery of Tradition, 1865-1942
MICHAEL D. CLARK

Challenging reigning assumptions, Clark maintains that in the period between the Civil War and World

War II Americans became more conscious of tradition as a social force, viewed it more positively, and used it more eclectically and selectively for personal and social enrichment.

“Poses a provocative challenge to familiar assumptions about American faith in progress.”—T. J. Jackson Lears, author of No Place of Grace
