In the article by Zwingel (published ahead of print, 2023), there are errors in two sentences. The sentence

The first position, gender-implicit, position represents intersectionality that implies but does not foreground gender.

should read as follows:

The first position, gender-implicit, represents intersectionality that implies but does not foreground gender.

The sentence

However, MDW created a direct connection through its local ordinance.

should read

However, MDC created a direct connection through its local ordinance.

We apologize for these errors.
