Financial History Review

Contents

The past mirror: notes, surveys, debates
Carolyn Sissoko
How to stabilize the banking system: lessons from the pre-1914 London money market 1

Articles
James L. Butkiewicz and Mihaela Solcan
The original Operation Twist: the War Finance Corporation’s war bond purchases, 1918–1920 21

William A. Allen
The British attempt to manage long-term interest rates in 1962–1964 47

Nathan Foley-Fisher and Eoin McLaughlin
Capitalising on the Irish land question: land reform and state banking in Ireland, 1891–1938 71

Kristina Lilja and Dan Bäcklund
Savings banks and working-class saving during the Swedish industrialisation 111
Financial History Review

EDITORS
S. Battilana, Department of Social Sciences, Universidad Carlos III Madrid, 28930 Garraf (Madrid), Spain
R. P. Esteves, Department of Economics, University of Oxford, Oxford OX1 3TZ, UK

BIBLIOGRAPHY
S. Novet & A. Kruger, European University Institute, Radio Firenze, 50029 San Donnino (Firenze), Italy

SUSCRIPTIONS

Financial History Review (ISSN 0968-5650) is published three issues a year in April, August and December. The parts form a volume. The subscription price which includes postage and electronic access (but excluding VAT) of volume 23 in £910 (US $1,200) (in USA, Canada and Mexico) for institutions; £710 (US $1,000) for individuals ordering direct from the publishers and certifying that the journal is for private use only. The electronic-only price available to institutional subscribers is £560 (US $800) in USA, Canada and Mexico. Single parts are £250 (US $360) in USA, Canada and Mexico plus postage. European Union subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country's rate. VAT-registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number. Japanese prices for institutions are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, PO Box 53, Chisago, Tokyo 136, Japan. Prices include delivery by air.

COPYING

Organisations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions.

For all other use of material from the journal permission should be sought from Cambridge or the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of forested lands. Please see www.fsc.org for information.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial policy

Financial History Review, published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the European Association for Banking and Financial History e.V., is an international peer-reviewed journal that publishes high-quality contributions concerning all aspects of banking, business, commerce, finance, and industry in their social, political, and intellectual context. The Review covers a broad range of topics, including, but not limited to, history, economic history, business history, and social history. Articles are based on careful research and are expected to provide a high level of scholarship.

Submissions

Manuscripts may be submitted through the online submission facility available on the Review’s web page (http://journals.cambridge.org/FHR).

Authors are required to upload:

1. A blinded copy of the manuscript. The cover page of the document should include the paper’s title, abstract (max. 200 words), a short list of keywords, and JEL codes. Please ensure that you should supply a WOS/ IFI document for the main text (including captions, bibliographical references, appendix) and a different single document in PDF for Tables and Figures.

2. A signed statement for the paper to be published either in English or Spanish, and that it is unpublished (also in any other language than English), and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the European Association for Banking and Financial History e.V.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscripts.

Preparation of manuscripts

1. Submissions should be double spaced throughout (e.g. 25.4 mm or 1 in. of single space) which should be left on all sides.

2. Pages should be numbered consecutively, beginning with the title page, the page number should be placed, ideally, at or near the top-right corner of the page.

3. Footnotes should be typed, double spaced and numbered consecutively and be grouped together at the end of the manuscript. Footnotes will appear in the journal at the bottom of each printed page. Footnotes should only be included with matters of substantive nature. Submission footnotes, involving commentary or argument, should be avoided, such material being more properly contained within the body of the text. If elaborate commentary on source is required, and cannot be incorporated within the body of the article, it should form an appendix to the article (to be included in the total word count).

4. Articles may, of appropriate, be divided into subsections designated by roman numerals on the page. Sub-headings within an article should be avoided.

5. All tables and figures should be submitted on separate pages and grouped together in a section at the end of the manuscript. Please number tables and figures consecutively and with Arabic numerals, e.g. Table 1, Figure 1, etc.

6. Authors will receive a PDF offprint of their published article. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Tables and graphs

Tables and graphs should be elided to the smallest unit, e.g. Table 1, Figure 2, etc.

Spelling

British spelling is preferred, using -o in words such as co-operative (not co-operative), except for proper names, or questions or words in common usage.

Footnotes

Footnotes should appear at the end of the section in which they occur, and each subsection of the text should be started with a new page (which should be elided if possible).

Works cited

References should be typed, double-spaced, numbered consecutively and be grouped together at the end of the manuscript. Footnotes will appear in the journal at the bottom of each printed page. Footnotes should only be included with matters of substantive nature. Submission footnotes, involving commentary or argument, should be avoided, such material being more properly contained within the body of the text. If elaborate commentary on source is required, and cannot be incorporated within the body of the article, it should form an appendix to the article (to be included in the total word count).

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscripts.
Contents

The past mirror: notes, surveys, debates
Carolyn Sissoko
How to stabilize the banking system: lessons from the pre-1914 London money market 1

Articles
James L. Butkiewicz and Mihaela Solcan
The original Operation Twist: the War Finance Corporation’s war bond purchases, 1918–1920 21

William A. Allen
The British attempt to manage long-term interest rates in 1962–1964 47

Nathan Foley-Fisher and Eoin McLaughlin
Capitalising on the Irish land question: land reform and state banking in Ireland, 1891–1938 71

Kristina Lilja and Dan Bäcklund
Savings banks and working-class saving during the Swedish industrialisation 111