Eleventh Annual Meeting

CALL FOR PAPERS, PARTICIPANTS, AND TOPICS ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

May 22-24, 1984

Pittsburgh, PA

Deadline: October 1, 1983

The Eleventh Annual Meeting of the History of Economics Society will be held May 22-24, 1984 at the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Members interested in presenting a paper should send me by October 1st a one-page statement that includes the following information:

- author's name, address, phone number, and institutional affiliation
- title of paper and topic area
- abstract of the paper (maximum of two abstracts, please)

Papers – and program suggestions – will be considered in any area of general interest to historians of economic thought, and may take theoretical, quantitative, literary, institutional, policy or any other perspective.

Members interested in chairing a session or serving as a discussant should so advise me (the same deadline), including his/her area of expertise.
