

Siena: The City of the Virgin

Translated from the German by

MARGARET MCDONOUGH BROWN

Titus Burckhardt

Combining magnificent colour photographs and black-and-white illustrations with a commentary, Dr Burckhardt vividly presents the city of Siena as the scene of some of the most important developments, in art, architecture, and civic life, of medieval and Renaissance Europe.

28 colour photographs, 16 pp. of monochrome illustrations, numerous line illustrations

STUDIES IN JEWISH-GENTILE
RELATIONS IN MEDIEVAL AND MODERN TIMES

Jacob Katz

A contribution to the history of ideas which influenced Jewish-Christian relations between medieval times and the end of the eighteenth century. The author has drawn his evidence from writers both Jewish and Christian, and has considered all types of attitude—that of the apostate, the proselyte, and the martyr, as well as of the devout and the scholastic.

BEING THE FORD LECTURES
DELIVERED IN THE UNIVERSITY OF
OXFORD IN HILARY TERM 1929

Sir Frank Stenton

The original purpose of these lectures was to get behind the abstract conceptions suggested by the word feudalism to the documents recording the actual dealings of knights and barons with one another, with their lords and with the king. For this second edition the text has been revised and use made of materials which throw new light on individual problems.
