

A SERIES ANNOUNCEMENT FROM PITTSBURGH

Science and Culture in the Nineteenth Century

Editor: Bernard Lightman, York University

An era of exciting and transformative scientific discoveries, the nineteenth century was also a period when significant features of the relationship between contemporary science and culture first assumed form. This book series includes studies of major developments within the disciplines—including geology, biology, botany, astronomy, physics, chemistry, medicine, technology, and mathematics—as well as themes within the social sciences, natural philosophy, natural history, the alternative sciences, and popular science. In addition, books in the series may examine science in relation to one or more of its many contexts, including literature, politics, religion, class, gender, colonialism and imperialism, material culture, and visual and print culture.

New Launch in 2016

BJHS Themes

Published for the British Society for the History of Science

A new peer-reviewed, open access, thematic journal for the history of science

Editor

Jon Agar, University College London, UK

BJHS Themes is a collaborative venture between the British Society for the History of Science and Cambridge University Press aimed at establishing the first fully open access journal for the history of science community. It aims to publish open access, high-quality, scholarly, engaging collections of history of science papers, which address provocative themes, and which will be free for readers and offer no financial barrier to publication for authors. Like its sister publication, British Journal for the History of Science, BJHS Themes is a journal of the British Society for the History of Science, a major learned society for its subject.

The 1st volume will be 'Intersections: Science and Technology in Twentieth Century China and India', a focus on a history of science and technology in China and India, which will be convened by historians Jahnnavi Phalkey and Tong Lam. It will be published in early 2016.

Science in Context

Editors

Leo Corry, The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Jürgen Renn, Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte, Berlin, Germany

Science in Context is an international journal edited at The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University, with the support of the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute. It is devoted to the study of the sciences from the points of view of comparative epistemology and historical sociology of scientific knowledge. The journal is committed to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of science and its cultural development - it does not segregate considerations drawn from history, philosophy and sociology. Controversies within scientific knowledge and debates about methodology are presented in their contexts.

THE BRITISH SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

Membership of the Society, which includes a subscription to The British Journal for the History of Science, is open to all persons approved by the Council of the Society and elected at an Extraordinary General Meeting. Details of the annual subscription can be found on our website www.bshs.org.uk or from the Executive Secretary at the address below. There is an Introductory offer for the first year.

BSHS publications: BSHS Monograph Series is designed to allow the publication of monographic studies in the history of science quickly and cheaply. Monographs 1–13 are available in digital form and can be downloaded for free via the BSHS website. Monographs 12–14 are available via a print-on-demand service.

Recent titles are as follows:

Images of the Earth: Essays in the History of the Environmental Sciences. Edited by L. J. Jordanova and R. Porter. Second edition. 1997. £17.

Science in Art: Works in the National Gallery that illustrate the History of Science and Technology. By J. V. Field and F. A. J. L. James. 1997. £15.

To See the Fellows Fight: Eye-witness accounts of meetings of the Geological Society of London and its Club, 1822–1868. By J. C. Thackray. 2003. £15.

The Society's magazine, Viewpoint, an informal publication, appears three times a year. It is free to members, £12.00 for institutions and UK non-members, 17.00 for overseas non-members from the Executive Secretary.

Administrative business of the Society is handled by Lucy Santos, Executive Secretary, British Society for the History of Science, PO Box 3408, Norwich, NR3 3WE. The Society is registered in England as a Limited Company (No. 562208) and is a Registered Charity (No. 258854). Email office@bshs.org.uk.
