

Professor of History of Exact Sciences

→ The Department of Humanities, Social and Political Sciences at ETH Zurich (www.gess.ethz.ch) invites applications for the above-mentioned professorship.

→ The candidate should have an internationally recognized track record in history of formal sciences, e.g. either in history of mathematics, history of physics or history of computer science. Besides, he or she should have an expertise in non-Western scientific traditions (preferably the Islamic World, South Asia or East Asia) and be proficient in at least one non-European language relevant for the region under study. The successful candidate ought to be able to build and sustain an excellent research and teaching program in an interdisciplinary environment. The position is based in the "Knowledge"-section of the department, focused on critically reflecting upon the historical, societal and philosophical aspects of science and technology, and on the broader issues related to the production, circulation and reception of knowledge.

→ Please apply online at www.facultyaffairs.ethz.ch

→ Applications should include a curriculum vitae, a list of publications, a project list, and a statement of future research and teaching interests. The letter of application should be addressed to the President of ETH Zurich, Prof. Dr. Lino Guzzella. The closing date for applications is 30 September 2015. ETH Zurich is an equal opportunity and family friendly employer and is further responsive to the needs of dual career couples. We specifically encourage women to apply.

Science in Context is an international journal edited at The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University, with the support of the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute. It is devoted to the study of the sciences from the points of view of comparative epistemology and historical sociology of scientific knowledge. The journal is committed to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of science and its cultural development - it does not segregate considerations drawn from history, philosophy and sociology. Controversies within scientific knowledge and debates about methodology are presented in their contexts.

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy

A Historical Journal

Executive Editor

Roshdi Rashed, CNRS, Paris, France & University of Tokyo, Japan

Managing Editor

Ahmed Hasnaoui, CNRS, Paris, France

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy (ASP) is an international journal devoted to the Arabic sciences, mathematics and philosophy in the world of Islam between the eighth and eighteenth centuries, in a cross-cultural context. In 2009, the journal extended its scope to include important papers on scientific modernization from the nineteenth century in the Islamic world. Together with original studies on the history of all these fields, ASP also offers work on the inter-relations between Arabic and Greek, Indian, Chinese, Latin, Byzantine, Syriac and Hebrew sciences and philosophy. Casting new light on the growth of these disciplines, as well as on the social and ideological context in which this growth took place, ASP is essential reading for those interested in these areas.

Samuel Moyn, Harvard University, USA

Sophia Rosenfeld, University of Virginia, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.
