ETHICS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Wolfgang Schrage

A comprehensive treatment of New Testament ethics which will become the standard work of reference. Professor Schrage pays careful attention to the various traditions and authors and stresses that ethics in the New Testament are contextual and must be considered in the light of specific historical and sociological situations.

PAUL AND HIS CONVERTS

Ernest Best

In this book, Ernest Best considers Paul's role as pastor, illuminating his many complex relationships with churches and individuals. The author discusses Paul's authority, his financial arrangements, his use of sarcasm, and concludes that Paul might not be a wholly good example for contemporary pastors.
