they generate. Finally, the aim to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems for discussion on contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the ICRC.

International Committee of the Red Cross

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is an impartial, neutral and independent organization whose exclusively humanitarian mission is to protect the lives and dignity of victims of war and other situations of violence and to provide them with assistance. It directs and coordinates the international activities conducted by the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement in armed conflict and other situations of violence. It also endeavours to prevent suffering by promoting and strengthening international humanitarian law and universal humanitarian principles. Established in 1863, the ICRC is at the origin of the Movement.

Members of the Committee

President: Peter Maurer

Vice-President: Christine Beerli

Mauro Arrigoni
Hugo Banzer
François Buguier
Gilles Carbonnier
Jacques Chapuis
Melchior de Muralt
Maya Hertig Randall
Alexis Keller
Jurgen Kesseler

Thierry Lombard
Lauras Sadis
Doris Schopper
Roelf Soiron
Béatrice Speiser
Bruno Staffeltbach
Heidi Tagliavini
Barbara Wildhaber

Introduction

The Review is a peer-reviewed journal published by the ICRC and Cambridge University Press. Its aim is to promote reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law, and contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion on contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate.

Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the ICRC.

Aim and scope

Established in 1869, the International Review of the Red Cross is a peer-reviewed journal published by the ICRC and Cambridge University Press. Its aim is to promote reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law, and contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion on contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the ICRC.

The International Review of the Red Cross

Established in 1869, the International Review of the Red Cross is a peer-reviewed journal published by the ICRC and Cambridge University Press. Its aim is to promote reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law, and contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion on contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the ICRC.

Submission of manuscripts

The International Review of the Red Cross invites submissions of manuscripts on subjects relating to international humanitarian law, policy and action. Issues focus on particular topics, decided by the Editorial Board, which can be consulted under the heading ‘Call for Papers’ on the website of the Review. Submissions related to these themes are particularly welcome.

Articles may be submitted in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian or Spanish. Selected submissions are translated into English if necessary.

Submissions must not have been published, submitted or accepted elsewhere. Articles are subjected to a peer-review process. The final decision on publication is taken by the Editor-in-Chief. The Review reserves the right to edit articles.

Manuscripts may be sent by e-mail to: review@icrc.org

Manuscript requirements

Articles should be 7,000 to 10,000 words in length. Shorter contributions can be published as comments or opinion notes. Articles on themes other than the main theme of an edition may be published under the heading ‘Selected articles on HIL and humanitarian action’.

For further information, please consult the website of the Review: www.icrc.org/eng/resources/international-review.

©ICRC 2019

Authorization to reprint or republish any text published in the Review must be obtained from the Editor-in-Chief. Requests should be addressed to review@icrc.org.
Conflict in Syria

Editorial: Conflict in Syria: Finding hope amid the ruins
Vincent Bernard, Editor-in-Chief

Interview with Peter Maurer
President of the ICRC

The Syrian Arab Red Crescent and the International Committee of the Red Cross: A true partnership to help the most vulnerable
Yassar Abdin

Mental health during the Syrian crisis: How Syrians are dealing with the psychological effects
Mazen Hadar

 Weaponizing monuments
Ross Burns

Crossing the red line: The use of chemical weapons in Syria and what should happen now
Yasmin Naqvi

Islamic law and international humanitarian law: An introduction to the main principles
Ahmed Al-Dawood

From a model of peace to a model of conflict: The effect of architectural modernization on the Syrian urban and social make-up
Marwa Al-Sabouni

Protecting cultural property in Syria: New opportunities for States to enhance compliance with international law?
Polina Levina Mahnad

“Safe areas”: The international legal framework
Emanuela-Chiara Gillard

Giulio Bartolini

Naval robots and rescue
Robert Sparrow, Rob McLaughlin and Mark Howard

Reports and documents
Books and articles