

THE SOCIETY FOR HEALTHCARE EPIDEMIOLOGY OF AMERICA SEEKS JOURNAL EDITOR

The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America is seeking candidates for the position of Editor-in-Chief for Infection Control and Hospital Epidemiology (ICHE). The editor of ICHE will chair the editorial advisory board and be supported by the editorial office and the editorial staff; will supervise the editorial content and substance of the journal; will serve as a decision maker in situations involving manuscripts suitable for publication; will serve as the Society's liaison with the publisher, the University of Chicago Press, and assure that services are provided in a manner that promotes ICHE's integrity and the Society's professional reputation; will promote communication among the many individuals involved in the publication; will propose innovation in the journal's content, emphasis, and form; will represent the journal at meetings with organizations and individuals interested in ICHE; will attend Board of Directors, Publication Committee, and Editorial Board meetings as necessary, and provide reports on the progress and activities of the journal.

The candidate will begin his or her term on January 1, 2007 and will serve for a term of five years. At the end of the five-year term, the editor may be reappointed for an additional five-year term without a competitive search.

To apply, please forward a letter of application stating your interest and qualifications, including personal publication experience, editorial experience, special training, computer technology, commitment of support from your institution, and membership in SHEA. Please include your current curriculum vitae. Applications should be sent by July 1, 2006, to David Pegues, MD, SHEA Chair of the Editor Search Taskforce, at 66 Canal Center Plaza, Suite 600, Alexandria, VA 22314. For further information regarding the position and compensation, please contact Annette Mucha, SHEA Executive Director at (703) 684-1006 or sheahq@shea-online.org.
