Cambridge Core

The new home of academic content

cambridge.org/core
Cambridge has been publishing in the field of religious studies since 1584, making our programme one of the oldest and most prestigious in the world. We publish books and journals on a wide range of religions and topics, from church history and theology, to biblical studies and religious ethics. Our publications represent the highest level of academic research from renowned authors. Series for students, including Cambridge Companions to Religion and Introductions to Religion, remain enduringly popular.

Notes for Contributors

The Journal of Anglican Studies is an international, fully refereed journal that publishes articles and reviews current work in the study of Anglicanism. The journal publishes occasional thematic articles on special topics. Correspondence about potential topics for future thematic issues should be directed to the Editor (andrew.b.mcgowan@yale.edu).

Full Guidelines for Contributors can be found on the website of the Journal: cambridge.org/ast Publishers are invited to send details of books for review to the Review Editor, Dr Mark Chapman (mchapman@ripon-cuddesdon.ac.uk) who will identify the reviewer. The publisher will be asked to send the book directly to the reviewer identified by the Review Editor.

The Editor welcomes articles for publication in the Journal. Submissions should be sent to the Editor as an email attachment in Word 97 or later, and/or Rich Text Format to Professor Andrew McGowan, e-mail: andrew.b.mcgowan@yale.edu

Manuscripts should be formatted using one-and-a-half line spacing, and numbered consecutively throughout. Submissions should include a cover sheet, preferably letterhead, with the title of the paper, name and title of the author, institutional affiliation and teaching activities to promote the study of and in order to contribute to the renewal of the Anglican tradition of Christianity.

All articles will be refereed and should normally be 5000–8000 words in length. A short abstract of 50–150 words and six to eight keywords MUST be supplied with your article.

Illustrations, tables, maps and figures must be numbered consecutively and include captions which identify the source of any image or data. Authors are responsible for obtaining and paying for all copyright and reproduction charges. Preferred formats for figures are tif, eps or jpg files, but these may not print as well as you expect. If text labels are required as part of the jpg half-tone it should be embedded into Word documents as the quality will be severely degraded.

The first-named author will receive a complimentary copy of the journal plus an email giving them a link to a PDF of their article.

Journal of Anglican Studies is covered by the following abstracting and indexing services: Thomson Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index, ATLA Religion Databases® (ATLA RDB®), Scopus, Current Abstracts (EBSCO Publishing), Swets Information Services, Index Theologicus, Religious and Theological Abstracts, European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences (ERIH PLUS), New Testament Abstracts, JSC Journal TOCs (Contents alerting system), Google Scholar

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world’s forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
