AIMS AND SCOPE. The Review of Politics publishes primarily philosophical and historical studies of politics, especially those concentrating on political theory and American political thought. The journal also includes thoughtful scholarly reflections on all aspects of politics—including analysis of institutions and techniques, international relations, comparative politics, literary reflections on politics or political interpretations of literary works, constitutional theory and practices.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION AND REVIEW. To submit a manuscript for consideration please send an electronic file (formatted in MS Word):

THE REVIEW OF POLITICS ONLINE SUBMISSION
http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cup/rop

Complete instructions are provided on the website. The menu will prompt the author to provide all necessary information, including the manuscript category, contact information for the corresponding author (phone number, fax number, email address), and suggested reviewers. The website will automatically acknowledge receipt of the manuscript and provide a reference number. The Editor will assign the manuscript to anonymous reviewers and every effort will be made to provide the author with a review in a timely fashion.

Authors uncomfortable with online submission may send their manuscript as an email attachment to rop.editor.1@nd.edu:

BOOK REVIEWS. All correspondence regarding book reviews should be sent to our editorial offices at rop.editor.1@nd.edu.

MANUSCRIPT LENGTH. Normal length of published manuscripts is 8,000-11,000 words. The entire manuscript, including notes and quotations, should be double-spaced.

Instructions to Contributors:

Author anonymity. Because manuscripts are evaluated anonymously they should not bear the author’s name or institutional affiliation. Please remove all references or acknowledgments that might indicate the identity of the author.

Abstract and keywords. All article submissions should include an abstract of 100-150 words.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION AND STYLE. The Review of Politics follows the Chicago Manual of Style for standards of citation, punctuation, and other editorial considerations.

Figures and tables. Appendices, tables, and figures should be numbered consecutively throughout the article and be included on separate pages appearing after the reference section. Each figure must be submitted electronically as a separate file. Electronic versions should submitted as 1200 dpi TIFF or EPS files at 100% of a suitable final size. Charts, graphs, or other artwork should be professionally rendered and computer generated.

COPYEDITING AND PAGE PROOFS. The publisher reserves the right to copyedit and proofread all articles accepted for publication. Page proofs of an article will be sent to the lead author of an article for correction of typographical errors only; authors must notify the publisher or the editorial office of any changes within 72 hours of receipt of proof or approval will be assumed.

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT. Papers with multiple authors are reviewed with the assumption that all authors concurs with its submission. A Copyright Transfer Agreement, with certain specified rights reserved by the author, must be signed and returned to the Editor by senior authors of accepted manuscripts, prior to publication. The Review of Politics does not accept manuscripts for review that are under review elsewhere, previously published, or already committed for publication.
