2. Manuscript preparation
Articles must be submitted as Word files to the journal and should not be more than 8,000 words long. Articles in two or more parts may occasionally be accepted provided each part is independently publishable. They should be in English. Each article must be submitted with an abstract of 100 words.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must prepare his manuscript according to the journal style guide which can be found at www.journals.cambridge.org/rel. Articles and book reviews will be checked and copy-edited for journal style and UK English.

The manuscript must be supplied in electronic format as Microsoft Word accompanied by a pdf of the same file.

3. Proofs
First proofs are sent to contributors by e-mail as PDF files. Corrections will only be accepted if they are returned within the specified time.

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to change authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

4. Offprints
Each Author will receive a pdf file containing their contribution to the journal, for their own use. Authors of Articles will also receive a copy of the journal.
