FRIEDERIKE BRÜHÖFENER is assistant professor of history at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (Department of History, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, 1201 West University Dr., ARHU 346A, Edinburg, Texas 78539; e-mail: friederike.bruehoefener@utrgv.edu). She is the author of “Sending Young Men to the Barracks: West Germany’s Struggle over the Establishment of New Armed Forces in the 1950s,” which appeared in 2014 in Gender and the Long Postwar: Reconsiderations of the United States and the Two Germanys, 1945–1989, a collection edited by Karen Hagemann and Sonya Michel. Her current project, “Defining the West German Soldier: Military, Society, and Masculinity in West Germany, 1945–1989,” explores the development and change of military masculinities in the four decades after the end of World War II.

ANN GOLDBERG is professor of history at the University of California, Riverside (Department of History, UCR, Riverside, CA 92521; email: ann.goldberg@ucr.edu). She is the author of Honor, Politics, and the Law in Imperial Germany, 1871–1914 (2010) and Sex, Religion, and the Making of Modern Madness (1999). Her article is part of a larger research project on the politics of hate speech in Germany from the nineteenth century to the present.

ERIC KURLANDER is professor of modern European history at Stetson University (Department of History, Stetson University, 421 North Woodland Blvd., Deland, FL 32723; e-mail: ekurland@stetson.edu). He is the coeditor of Revisiting the “Nazi Occult”: Histories, Realities, Legacies (2015) and Transcultural Encounters between Germany and India: Kindred Spirits in the 19th and 20th Centuries (2014); and the author of Living With Hitler: Liberal Democrats in the Third Reich (2009) and The Price of Exclusion: Ethnicity, National Identity, and the Decline of German Liberalism, 1898–1933 (2006). He is currently finishing a book titled, Hitler’s Monsters: A Supernatural History of the Third Reich.

ANNIKA MOMBAUER is senior lecturer in history at The Open University (Department of History, The Open University, Walton Hall, Milton Keynes, MK7 6AA, UK; email: Annika.Mombauer@open.ac.uk). Her recent publications include Die Julikrise. Europas Weg in den Ersten Weltkrieg (2014) and The origins of the First World War: Diplomatic and military documents (2013). She is currently preparing a revised and updated version of The Origins of the First World War: Controversies and Consensus (2002), to be published in 2016.

HERMANN REBEL is professor emeritus at the University of Arizona (email: hrebel@email.arizona.edu). His publications include When Women Held The Dragon’s Tongue and Other Essays in Historical Anthropology (2010) and Peasant Classes: The Bureaucratization of Property and Family Relations under Early Habsburg Absolutism, 1511–1636 (1983). He has written on Austrian and German agrarian and cultural history, and continues to develop the story he first outlined in “Dark Events and Lynching Scenes in the Collective Memory: A Dispossession Narrative about Austria's Descent into Holocaust," which appeared in 2001 in Agrarian Studies, a collection edited by James C. Scott and Nina Bhatt. He is also investigating the conceptual assumptions and historical implications of the philosophical anthropology of Arnold Gehlen, Thomas Nipperdey, and others after 1950.

JAMES J. SHEEHAN is Dickason Professor in the Humanities and professor of history emeritus at Stanford University (2742 Benvenue Ave, Berkeley, CA 94705; email: Sheehan@stanford.edu). His most recent book, Where Have All the Soldiers Gone? The Transformation of Modern Europe (2008), explores the changing role of war in the twentieth century. He is now working on a book tentatively titled "Making a Modern Political Order," which will be based on the Dilenschneider lectures that he delivered at the University of Notre Dame in the spring of 2015.

Editorial Policy

Central European History publishes articles, review articles, book reviews, and conference reports dealing with the history of German-speaking central Europe. The journal solicits manuscripts using all approaches to history and dealing with all historical periods. Because space is limited, articles that have been or soon will be published elsewhere are not accepted. Manuscripts submitted to CEH should not be under consideration by another journal pending decision of the editor on publication. If it is learned that an article is under submission to another journal while being considered at CEH, consideration will cease immediately. Unsolicited book reviews are not accepted.

Manuscripts and correspondence should be directed to:

Andrew I. Port
Editor, Central European History
Wayne State University
3094 FAB
656 West Kirby
Detroit, MI 48202, USA
Email: CentralEuropeanHistory@wayne.edu

The editors prefer that manuscripts be submitted in electronic form as email attachments sent to the journal's address, preferably in Microsoft Word 2003 or later or WordPerfect 12.0 or later; Adobe Acrobat pdf files will also be reviewed. Manuscripts submitted in printed form must be accompanied by a compact disk or diskette with the article in Word, WordPerfect, or pdf. The entire text of all manuscripts, including footnotes and headings, must be prepared in double-spaced typescript with generous margins to allow for copyediting. Footnotes must be numbered consecutively and should be placed in a separate section at the end of the text.

Correspondence concerning book reviews should be sent to:

Julia S. Torrie
Associate Editor, Book Reviews
Central European History
St. Thomas University
51 Dineen Dr.
Fredericton, NB
E3B 5G3
Canada
Email: ceh@stu.ca

Further guidelines for the preparation of manuscripts for publication in Central European History will be sent upon acceptance of materials by the editor. All materials will be edited to conform with The Chicago Manual of Style in matters regarding punctuation, capitalization, and format. The final decision on style remains with the editor.
