ISRAEL-ARAB READER

A Documentary History
of the Middle East Conflict

Sixth Revised and Updated Edition

Edited by Walter Laqueur and Barry Rubin

This wide-ranging sourcebook includes speeches, letters, articles, and reports dealing with all the major interests in the area from all of the relevant political parties and world leaders. All viewpoints—American, Arab, British, Egyptian, Israeli, Palestinian, and Russian—are accurately presented, with new sections on the Wye River agreement, and other recent developments, making it the essential resource on the ongoing conflict.

Penguin 448 pp. 0-14-029713-8 $15.00

CLEOPATRA

Ernie Bradford

In this illuminating biography, Ernie Bradford suggests that Cleopatra's prurient reputation was likely manufactured by the conquering Romans to discredit her name after her death.

Penguin 288 pp. 0-14-139014-X $16.00

YEMEN: The Unknown Arabia

Tim Mackintosh-Smith

"Mackintosh-Smith has Yemeni history and geography at his fingertips, and with a light, sure touch he sets them within a lattice of observations, arguments and poetry."—Jason Goodwin, The New York Times Book Review.

Overlook 280 pp. 1-58567-139-8 $16.95

INSIDE THE SERAGLIO

Private Lives of the Sultans in Istanbul

John Freely

The author explores the decadent world within the palace walls and exposes most of the later sultans as weak, some as insane, and many as dominated by their wives or mothers. Freely describes the imperial harem, black eunuch guards, and the other people who served and amused the sultans. b/w illustrations.

Penguin 408 pp. 0-14-027056-6 $15.00

STAIRCASE OF A THOUSAND STEPS

Masha Hamilton

In her debut novel, "former AP Middle East correspondent Hamilton writes with striking clarity, using words as carefully as the Bedouin use water to bring a disappearing world to vibrant life. Here, are the voices, real and rarely heard, of traditional Arab women."—Kirkus Reviews, starred.

BlueHen 288 pp. 0-399-14725-X $23.95

THREE APPLES FELL FROM HEAVEN

Micheline Aharonian Marcom

"Spectacularly gifted, tender, wise, and terrible in rage, Micheline Marcom has woven a heart-rending tapestry from the lost time, lost places, and lost voices of the Armenian genocide."—Junot Diaz.

Riverhead 208 pp. 1-57322-186-4 $23.95

Journal of Social Affairs (JSA)

The Journal of Social Affairs (JSA) welcomes manuscripts from a wide variety of fields, including anthropology, cultural studies, economics, education, history, international relations, law, philosophy, psychology, public administration and sociology. The aim of the Journal is to promote the flow of those scholarly works that will be of benefit to the United Arab Emirates in particular, and the Middle East in general. Some preference will be given to manuscripts which are of direct relevance to the United Arab Emirates and the Middle East, but other manuscripts are also very much encouraged.

Under the conditions of a new agreement signed January 30, 2001, the Journal of Social Affairs will be published jointly by the American University of Sharjah (AUS) and the Sociological Association of the United Arab Emirates. The Sociological Association has been publishing the JSA for 17 years, exclusively in Arabic. Under the new agreement, approximately half of each issue will be published in English (commencing with the Fall issue of 2001). The Journal will, therefore, become more accessible to scholars throughout the world. The JSA is currently recognized as one of the leading social science journals in the Middle East, and is widely read in such countries as Egypt, Kuwait, Iraq, Jordan, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and the United Arab Emirates.

The JSA is published quarterly. All submissions for publication undergo blind peer reviews by multiple reviewers. Manuscripts are acknowledged within two weeks of receipt. Every attempt will be made to inform authors about the suitability of submitted manuscripts for publication within three months.

About AUS The American University of Sharjah (AUS) is a private, nonprofit, coeducational, American-style institution in the Emirate of Sharjah, United Arab Emirates. It is affiliated with the American University in Washington, DC, which provides the senior academic leadership for AUS. The language of instruction at AUS is English. All classes and administrative functions are carried out in English. AUS admitted its first students and began classes in the fall of 1997, and is the first comprehensive university of its kind in the Gulf region. The University is committed to a vision of itself as an independent institution based on the American model, but one which is thoroughly grounded in Arab culture. AUS was established by His Highness, Dr. Sheik Sultan Bin Mohammed Al Qassimi, Supreme Council Member, Ruler of Sharjah.
