

Canadian schools are included. The description of each program includes information about specialization(s), tuition charges and financial aid, admission and degree requirements. Faculty members are listed for each program with their highest degree and fields of specialization. The Guide has a faculty and geographical index, as well as data on number of degrees awarded and affirmative action efforts. The price is $15 for APSA members and $20 for nonmembers.

Originally published in 1977, Storming Washington: An Intern's Guide to National Government by Stephen Frantzich is now in its second edition. Finding an internship and making the most out of the internship experience are discussed. Advice is also given to instructors on credit format and research assignments. Single copies can be obtained for $3.00 each, and bulk order rates are available.

Orders for either of these publications should be prepaid. Send your orders and checks to APSA Publications, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036. Please include $1.00 postage for each book. □

APSA Selects Black American and Chicano/Latino Fellows

Fifteen students of political science have been named APSA Fellows for 1986-87. Twelve black American and three Chicano and Latino Fellows were selected by members of the APSA Committee on the Status of Blacks and the Committee on the Status of Chicanos, respectively. Four Fellows will receive stipends while the others will receive an honorary fellowship in recognition of their past record and unusual promise for graduate study.

Robert Jervis to Head 1987 Program Committee

Samuel P. Huntington, president-elect of APSA, has appointed Robert Jervis of Columbia University to chair the Program Committee for the 1987 Annual Meeting. In addition, scholars have been named to head the 27 sections planned for next year's program. These nominations were approved by the Council at its April 18 meeting in Washington, D.C.

The Program Committee is composed of Jervis and the section heads. The 1987 Annual Meeting will be held in Chicago September 3-6, 1987. Jervis has announced that the theme of the 1987 meeting will be Constitutions and Constitutionalism.

On behalf of the Program Committee, Jervis is soliciting from Association members paper suggestions and offers to appear as discussants for next year's meeting.

Due to the lead time required for preparation of copy for the spring Preliminary Program, the deadline for receiving suggestions is December 1, 1986.

Association members are asked to write directly to the appropriate section chairperson listed below. More general inquiries or suggestions may be addressed to:

- Robert Jervis, Institute of War and Peace Studies, Columbia University, 420 West 118th Street, New York, NY 10027; (212) 280-4610.
- Norinne Hessman, Convention Coordinator, APSA, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20036; (202) 483-2512.

Further details on the plans for each section will be provided in the summer issue of PS. The section heads are:
