New books from Butterworths

Bradgate and Savage: Commercial Law

1991. By Robert Bradgate and Nigel Savage

Designed to fulfil the needs of law students reading for undergraduate degrees, this new book covers all the main topics of commercial law courses. Written by the same authors as the popular textbook Business Law, it shares its critical and contextual approach. The book is transaction based and designed to show how separate contracts interlock within the context of a transaction.

Soft cover ISBN 0 406 51412 7 £21.95

Davies and Holdcroft: Jurisprudence - Texts and Commentary

1991. By Howard Davies and David Holdcroft

Howard Davies and David Holdcroft, who together devised and teach the highly regarded jurisprudence course at Leeds University, have selected texts that illustrate the wide range of thinking on all the various aspects of the subject, including law and ethics, utilitarianism, positivism and realism. A commentary both explains why each particular extract has been chosen and discusses the issues that arise from them.

Soft cover ISBN 0 406 50428 8 £19.95

Hepple and Matthews: Tort - Cases and Materials

4th Edition 1991. By B A Hepple and M H Matthews

This eagerly awaited new edition of the leading students' sourcebook on the Law of Tort takes account of the many important changes in case law and legislation since the last edition was published in 1985. Among the new cases which are included, with full notes and questions, are Murphy v Brentwood District Council (1990), Caparo Industries plc v Dickman (1990), Smith v Eric S Bush (1989), Lonrho plc v Fayed (1989), Sutcliffe v Pressdram Ltd (1990) and Smith v Littlewoods Organisation Ltd (1987). The Consumer Protection Act 1987 is also featured.

Soft cover ISBN 0 406 54001 2 £25.95

Lasok and Bridge: Law and Institutions of the European Communities

5th Edition 1991. By D Lasok and JW Bridge

This new edition has been extensively revised and enlarged and incorporates such developments as the impact of the Single European Act, the locus standi of the European Parliament, the establishment of the Court of First Instance, the effect of membership upon the constitution of the UK and legislation relating to the environment and consumer protection.

Soft cover
ISBN 0 406 60931 4 £22.95 (approx)

Riddall: Jurisprudence

1991. By J G Riddall

Featuring in particular the works of Austin, Hart, Dworkin, Kelsen, Finnis and the American realists, the author explores the core thinking of each of the jurists, breaking down each topic into its salient points and supplying the necessary grounding for anybody wishing to go on to further study. An introductory chapter outlines the principal problems of jurisprudence and explains certain key words and concepts.

Soft cover
ISBN 0 406 60064 3 £14.95 (approx).

The Exclusive Economic Zone

Regime and Legal Nature under International Law

FRANCISCO ORREGO VICUNA

This new book examines the many uses of the maritime exclusive economic zone: as a protection for natural resources, an aggressive act in a dispute and as a common form of boundary control. It explores the legal basis of exclusive zones and their compatibility with modern maritime operations.

A Theory of Property

STEPHEN R. MUNZER

In this book, Stephen R. Munzer argues for the justification of some rights of private property while showing why unequal distributions of private property are indefensible. The book represents a major new statement on the issue of property rights.

Deciding for Others

The Ethics of Surrogate Decision-making

ALLEN BUCHANAN and DAN W. BROCK

This book is the most comprehensive treatment available of one of the most urgent – and yet in some respects most neglected – problems in bioethics: decision-making for incompetents. The authors' approach combines a probing analysis of fundamental issues in ethical theory with a sensitive awareness of the concrete realities of health care institutions and the highly personal and individual character of difficult practical problems.
