The Asian Journal of International Law (AsianJIL) is the journal of the Asian Society of International Law.

Sign up for sample articles, table-of-content alerts and news emails here www.AsianJIL.org

AsianJIL publishes peer-reviewed scholarly articles and book reviews on public and private international law. Articles focus on Asian issues or bring one of the many Asian perspectives to bear on global issues, but AsianJIL is also of more general interest to scholars, practitioners, and policymakers located in or working on Asia.

Migration and Diaspora in Modern Asia

Sunil S. Amrith

New Approaches to Asian History

$27.99: Paperback: 978-0-521-72702-0

“Sunil Amrith's magisterial survey of the great human drama of migration across Asia during the last 150 years will find its place as the authoritative, standard work on the subject. A gripping analytical narrative of the flows and links that transcended the borders of Western empires and Asian nation-states, this book is an example of the writing of connective interregional history at its very best.”

– Sugata Bose, Gardiner Professor of History, Harvard University

Ho Chi Minh
A Biography

Pierre Brocheux

Translated by Claire Duiker

“...the most sensitive treatment of Ho’s complex personality, as well as iconic status, that I have read to date. Brocheux gives us his own interpretation of Ho while avoiding the temptation to extemporize in a quasi-fictional manner.”

– David G. Marr, Pacific Affairs

Modern Asian Studies promotes an understanding of contemporary Asia and its rich inheritance. Covering South Asia, South-East Asia, China, and Japan, this bi-monthly journal publishes original research articles concerned with the history, geography, politics, sociology, literature, economics, social anthropology and culture of the area. It specialises in the longer monographic essay based on archival materials and new field work. Its expanded book review section offers detailed and in-depth analysis of recent literature.
