

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND COMMERCE
NOTICE OF FORTHCOMING ACTUARIAL POSITIONS

The Department of Statistics and Econometrics at the Australian National University intends to offer full-time continuing appointments in the area of Actuarial Studies for commencement in the year 2000. Appointment would be considered at both Lecturer and Senior Lecturer levels, dependent on experience and level of professional qualifications. Potential candidates must hold either Fellow or Associate status with the Institute of Actuaries of Australia or equivalent overseas body. The positions will require teaching of units within the Actuarial Studies degree at the ANU. Teaching responsibilities typically entail three semester-length units per year. The positions would also require the conduct of research in actuarial science. Additional information about the actuarial program is available at <http://ecocomm.anu.edu.au/actuarial/> while more general information is available at <http://ecocomm.anu.edu.au>.
