LITERATURE: THE HUMAN EXPERIENCE

Reading and Writing, Thirteenth Edition

Organized around timeless themes (innocence and experience, conformity and rebellion, culture and identity, love and hate, life and death), Literature: The Human Experience presents an extraordinary range of selections from contemporary and classic authors across time and cultures. Students are certain to discover literature with which they can connect. And it costs less than comparable anthologies, providing a wealth of material for an affordable price.

Where stories and their writers do the talking

Charters

THE STORY AND ITS WRITER

An Introduction to Short Fiction, Tenth Edition

Ann Charters has an astute sense of which stories work most effectively in the classroom, and she knows that writers, not editors, have the most interesting and useful things to say about their fiction. The new, trimmer edition features many very recent stories and commentaries by up-and-coming writers; a new Casebook on short shorts or flash fiction; and an expanded focus on why we read, study, and write about short fiction.
