1983 CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

The 1983 Annual Conference of the History of Economics Society will be held on May 24, 25, 26 at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia. This date is chosen to fit between the University's graduation exercises, May 22, and the busy Memorial Day weekend. The conference organizer is Professor John K. Whitaker, President-elect of HES. Anyone interested in presenting a paper should write to him at University of Virginia, Department of Economics, Rouss Hall, Charlottesville, VA 22901 giving a title and a brief description. Contributions from foreign members and/or papers on Keynes, Schumpeter (centennials), Marx (centennial of his death) and Thünen (biecentennial) are particularly solicited.

A block of rooms has been reserved in Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge which is within easy walking distance of Rouss Hall where the sessions will be held. Charlottesville, which is 120 miles southwest of Washington, D.C. is conveniently connected by air and rail to Washington, New York and Atlanta. Further information and reservation forms will be mailed to members early in the New Year.
