For all other use, permission should be sought from the Cambridge or New York offices of the Cambridge University Press.

Notes for contributors. The top (ribbon) copy of the typescript should be submitted. This must be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Footnotes, bibliographies, appendixes and indented quotations must also be double spaced. Contributors should write in English, or be willing to have their articles translated.

Tables, graphs, diagrams and music examples must be supplied on separate sheets. Illustrations should be in the form of black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 8" × 6". All illustrative material should be numbered and carefully keyed into the typescript. Captions should be typed double spaced on separate sheets.

Bibliographical material. The method of citation is author-date system (Smith 1980, p. 66), which should be given in the text rather than in footnotes; full references should be listed at the end of each article. Abbreviations for the names of periodicals, libraries etc. should not be used without explanation.

For more detailed matters of style please follow the practices of A Manual of Style, 12th edn (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1969).

EVERYDAY CULTURE

POPULAR SONG AND THE VERNACULAR MILIEU

edited by Michael Pickering and Tony Green

This collection of essays points to new ways of thinking about vernacular song and everyday culture. It shows how popular song in everyday life remains a key element of cultural communication.
