

Martin Frobisher

Elizabethan Privateer

JAMES McDERMOTT

This highly entertaining biography provides the first complete account of Frobisher's life and exploits—from his search for the fabled Northwest Passage to his courageous resistance against the Spanish Armada and his adventures as privateer and sometime pirate. 12 illus. $35.00

Becoming Victoria

LYNNE VALLONE

This book uncovers in fascinating detail the childhood that Victoria actually lived, drawing on her own letters, stories, drawings, educational materials, and journals. 36 b/w + 15 color illus. $26.95

— New titles in the Yale English Monarchs series —

Henry I

C. WARREN HOLLISTER

Edited by Amanda Clark Frost

This long-awaited biography, written by one of the most distinguished medievalists of his generation, paints a new portrait of Henry I, son of William the Conqueror. C. Warren Hollister vividly describes Henry's life and reign in a time of fundamental change in the Anglo-Norman world. 16 illus. $39.95

George I

RAGNHILD HATTON

With a new foreword by
Jeremy Black

This groundbreaking biography—the only comprehensive account of George's life and reign—reveals the king as an impressive ruler who welcomed the responsibilities of his role and set out to bring culture to what he considered the unsophisticated English nation. 40 illus. $22.50 paperback

Henry VI

BERTRAM WOLFFE

With a new foreword by
John L. Watts

“A brilliant biography that brings us as near as we are ever likely to come to this elusive personality”
—Sunday Times (London) (review of the earlier edition) 48 illus. $22.50 paperback

James II

JOHN MILLER

“This is a first-class essay in historical biography. . . . It must displace all previous lives of James II.”
—J. P. Kenyon, Observer
20 illus. $17.00 paperback

George IV

E. A. SMITH

“A delightfully written and stimulating contribution to English royal history.”—Derek Turner,
Literary Review 25 illus. $18.50 paperback

Yale University Press

www.yale.edu/yp

NEW FROM CAMBRIDGE

The Cambridge Urban History of Britain

The three volumes of The Cambridge Urban History of Britain represent the culmination of a tremendous upsurge of research in British urban history over the past thirty years. Mobilizing the combined expertise of nearly ninety historians, archaeologists and geographers from Britain, continental Europe and North America, these volumes trace the complex and diverse evolution of British towns from the earliest Anglo-Saxon settlements to the mid-twentieth century. Taken together they form a comprehensive and uniquely authoritative account of the development of the first modern urban nation.

Volume 1: 600-1540

D.M. Palliser, Editor

0-521-44461-6 Hardback $140.00

Volume 2: 1540-1840

Peter Clark, Editor

0-521-43141-7 Hardback $140.00

Volume 3: 1840-1950

Martin Daunton, Editor

0-521-41707-4 Hardback $140.00

3 Volume Set

0-521-80155-9 Hardback $400.00

The Agrarian History of England and Wales

Vol. 7: 1850-1914

E.J.T. Collins, Editor

Agrarian History of England and Wales Series

0-521-66214-1 Hardback $295.00

Town and Country in Europe, 1300-1800

S.R. Epstein, Editor

Themes in International Urban History 5

0-521-63341-9 Hardback $64.95

Urban Achievement in Early Modern Europe

Golden Ages in Antwerp, Amsterdam and London

Patrick O'Brien, Marjolein 't Hart, Derek Keene, and

Herman van der Wee, Editors

0-521-59408-1 Hardback $64.95

The Last Tasmanian Tiger

The History and Extinction of the Thylacine

Robert Paddle

0-521-78219-8 Hardback $64.95

Firms, Networks and Business Values

The British and American Cotton Industries since 1750

Mary B. Rose

Cambridge Studies in Modern Economic History 8

0-521-78255-4 Hardback $64.95

Revolution, Counter-Revolution, and Union

Ireland in the 1790s

Jim Smyth, Editor

0-521-66109-9 Hardback $59.95

Knowledge and Practice in English Medicine, 1550-1680

Andrew Wear

0-521-55226-5 Hardback $74.95

0-521-55827-1 Paperback $27.95

The Writing of Royalism, 1628-1660

Robert Wilcher

0-521-66183-8 Hardback $64.95

Available in bookstores or from

 CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

40 West 20th Street, New York, NY 10011-4211

Call toll-free 800-872-7423

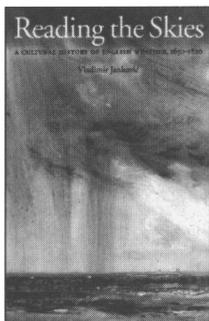

Web site: us.cambridge.org/history

AmEx/MasterCard/VISA accepted.

Prices subject to change.

Praying for Rain

new from chicago

Reading the Skies

A Cultural History of English Weather, 1650-1820

Vladimir Janković

“Vladimir Janković’s engaging and scholarly book gives the weather its rightful place in English social and cultural history. He shows how much interest was taken in spectacular weather events during the long eighteenth century, and how much local pride was invested in them. . . . [T]his book shows how the link between peculiar weather and national identity was forged.”—Jan Golinski, coeditor of The Sciences in Enlightened Europe

Paper $20.00

Drama, Play, and Game

English Festive Culture in the Medieval and Early Modern Period

Lawrence M. Clopper

“In this important and highly innovative study, Clopper does battle with the traditional scholarly view of a gradual development in medieval drama from liturgy to a vigorous secular outdoor entertainment. . . . Clopper’s argument challenges us to pay serious attention to more confrontational aspects of medieval drama, and it is sure to alter our perceptions of how that drama achieved so much.”—David Bevington, editor of The Complete Works of Shakespeare

Cloth $45.00

Common Prayer

The Language of Public Devotion in Early Modern England

Ramie Targoff

“[B]rilliantly historicizes the troubling binary between inner emotion and external convention that has plagued most work on religious poetry since Dr. Johnson. Attentive to both the nuances of literary texts and the complexities of history, Targoff demonstrates the centrality of religious and particularly liturgical discourse to the processes of subject formation in early modern English.”—Michael Schoenfeldt, author of Bodies and Selves in Early Modern England

Paper $17.00

Now in paper

What Gardens Mean

Stephanie Ross

Paying special attention to the amazing landscape gardens of eighteenth-century England, Stephanie Ross situates gardening among the other fine arts, documenting the complex messages gardens can convey and tracing various connections between gardens and the art of painting.

“What Gardens Mean is a wonderful intellectual combination of discussions on the interdisciplinary histories of art, gardening, and philosophy.”—Choice

Paper $25.00

The University of Chicago Press

1427 East 60th Street, Chicago, IL 60637
www.press.uchicago.edu

The insider's guide to academic publishing—from manuscript to marketing.

Getting It Published

and Anyone Else
A Guide for Scholars Serious about Serious Books

William Germano

"This witty and indispensable book provides tag-line pieces of advice everyone will remember—'A scholarly book for anybody is a scholarly book for nobody'; 'If it doesn't work in the first fifty pages, it's out'—and a huge fund of information every would-be author will need. The chapters on 'What a Contract Means' and 'How to Deliver a Manuscript' will take you by the hand and lead you to where you want to go; but the book never loses sight of why you might want to go there and is itself a celebration of academic publishing even as it equips you to negotiate its minefields."

—STANLEY FISH, University of Illinois at Chicago

Chicago Guides to Writing, Editing, and Publishing

Paper $15.00

The University of Chicago Press

1427 East 60th Street, Chicago, IL 60637 www.press.uchicago.edu

DIVINE FEMININE

Theosophy and Feminism
in England

Joy Dixon

"In this imaginatively conceived, extensively researched, and insightfully analyzed study, Dixon convincingly argues the complicated but crucial connections between the spiritual and the political during the late-nineteenth and early-twentieth centuries. Divine Feminine is a highly original and substantial contribution to the fields of English feminism and religion."—Nancy Fix Anderson, Loyola University New Orleans, author of Woman against Woman in Victorian England

$46.00 hardcover

CRIMINALITY AND NARRATIVE IN EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY ENGLAND

Beyond the Law

Hal Gladfelder

"Gladfelder has done an excellent job of scholarship. This book will make a mark as one of the most complete books on the relation between criminality and the novel. It is also a very good re-reading of the standard works in the field."

—Lennard J. Davis, University of Illinois at Chicago

$42.50 hardcover

BRITISH WOMEN POETS OF THE ROMANTIC ERA

An Anthology

edited by Paula R. Feldman

"A wide-ranging selection of poems written by British women from all kinds of backgrounds and geographical locations . . . Detailed, scholarly headnotes . . . [provide] a clearer, more inflected understanding of this outstandingly prolific period in the history of women's writing."—Lucy Newlyn, Review of English Studies

$28.00 paperback

Materialize

THE PARTY OF HUMANITY

Writing Moral Psychology in Eighteenth-Century Britain
Blakey Vermeule

"One of the most important books about the eighteenth century in the past twenty years. The Party of Humanity unfolds a significant argument about the place of moral psychology in eighteenth-century English thought and how it relates to current discussions."—Frances Ferguson, The Johns Hopkins University, author of Solitude and the Sublime: Romanticism and the Aesthetics of Individuation

$42.00 hardcover

WOMEN, WRITING, AND THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

Susan Zlotnick

"A compelling new reading of an important facet of British cultural history, based on contrasting literary treatments of the effects of the industrial revolution by male and female writers."—Victorian Periodicals Review

$17.95 paperback

JOHNS HOPKINS

The Johns Hopkins University Press • 1-800-537-5487 • www.jhubooks.com

