The British Journal for the History of Science (BJHS) is the journal of the British Society for the History of Science, the major national body for this subject in Britain. One of the premier journals in the field, it publishes high quality papers and review articles in all fields of the history of science. There are four issues per year comprising an annual volume of around 500 pages. BJHS also includes an extensive book review section. Occasional thematic issues are published on important problems or topics.

Contributions are welcome. They should be submitted to the Editor, Jon Agar, Department of Science and Technology Studies, University College London, Gower Street, London, WC1E 6BT, email jrca@ucl.ac.uk. They are considered on the understanding that they are unpublished and are not on offer to another journal. Contributions should be submitted in electronic form as an email attachment, preferably in MS Word format. Hard copies on A4 or American quarto paper are, however, acceptable, by arrangement with the editor.

Texts should be rigorously documented. References to primary and secondary sources must be set as endnotes, not as footnotes, and typed in double spacing and numbered consecutively. Cite as follows:

Line drawings should be submitted electronically where possible, as tif or jpg files on CD or on email if the files are small; photographs can also be submitted as high resolution jpg or tif files. For line drawings or photographs, provide the copyright information requested by the author. For line drawings, a brief description of the illustration should be provided in the margins or in a legend. For photographs, a caption should be provided in the margins or in a legend. Where photographs are used, the original photographs should be submitted with the manuscript.

For theses, give University Microfilm order number or at least the Dissertations Abstract number. Where photographs are used, the original photographs should be submitted with the manuscript.

Footnotes should be set as endnotes, not as footnotes, and typed in double spacing and numbered consecutively. Cite as follows:

Texts should be double spaced with a margin. Always include an abstract of 150–200 words. Long quotations should be short. Short quotations should be given single quotation marks. Spelling should follow the Oxford English Dictionary. All papers should be double spaced and typed in double spacing and numbered consecutively. Cite as follows:
