History
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world’s leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ONLINE ACCESS

Institutional subscribers: If you are connecting from an institution with a current subscription to JGAPE, you will automatically receive access to full online content. This is enabled through the use of institutional IP address ranges and does not require a personal login. However, to use the features Cambridge Journals Online offers, including bookmarking articles, saving searches, etc., you must register on the site and select your own username and password.

Individual members: Log in to CJO (with the CJO username used to purchase your membership) and visit the journal homepage at http://journals.cambridge.org/jga to access the journal. If you have difficulties, please contact either the CJO administrators or Customer Service.
