

A Writer's City can be imagined as maps of some of the world's greatest literary cities, taking the reader, area-by-area, through the neighbourhoods that shaped – and were shaped by – writers including James Joyce, F. Scott Fitzgerald and Sally Rooney.

Christopher Morash

Save 20% with code DUB20

9781108831642 | £20.00 $24.95
Hardback | March 2023

cambridge.org/Dublin

T. R. Johnson

Save 20% with code NOLA20

9781316512067 | £20.00 $24.95
Hardback | March 2023

cambridge.org/NewOrleans

“Dazzling in depth and breadth... an outstanding endeavor, for anyone who loves New Orleans, anyone who loves literature, and of course, for anyone who loves both.”

Jesmyn Ward, two-time winner of the National Book Award

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

