

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

- AMMETER, HANS, Well known as the author of many papers on collective risk theory in general insurance and interested in graduation problems, renewal theory and the application of risk theory to Excess of Loss and Stop Loss reinsurance.
First Actuary of the „Société suisse d'Assurances générales sur la vie humaine”, Zurich. Member of the ASTIN editorial board.
- BEARD, ROBERT ERIC, Member of the founder Committee of ASTIN, Secretary, Editor and Committee member of ASTIN. Fellow of Institute of Actuaries, Fellow of Royal Statistical Society, Associate of Society of Actuaries. Has contributed papers to the Institute of Actuaries on graduation of mortality tables, approximate quadrature and other topics.
Assistant General Manager of “Pearl” Assurance Co. Ltd., London.
- DEPOID, PIERRE A. A. A., Distinguished for his contributions to demographic statistics and actuarial studies in France.
Author of numerous papers and books of which his „Application de la statistique aux Assurances Accidents et Dommages” will be well known. General Manager of Compagnie d'Assurances „La Prévoyance”, Paris, and General Secretary of the Statistical Society of Paris.
Member of l'Institut International de Statistique, de l'Union Internationale pour l'Etude Scientifique de la Population.
Member of the ASTIN editorial board.
- ENGELFRIET, JOHANNES, Has had a distinguished actuarial career in Holland and has published original papers on various subjects in both life and non-life insurance. Actively engaged in the application of electronic data processing machines to insurance problems. President of the Actuariel Genootschap 1948-54, President of the Association of Life Insurance Companies 1956—, Professor of Applied Mathematics, University of Amsterdam from 1948, Manager of the N.V. Levensverzekering Maatschappij „Nederlandse Nillmij van 1859” from 1951. Corresponding member of the Institute of Actuaries.
Member of the ASTIN editorial board.
- FRANCKX, EDOUARD, Founder member and committee member of ASTIN and largely responsible for the early establishment work.
General Secretary of the Permanent Committee of the International Congresses of Actuaries.
Président Agrégé de l'Association des Actuaires Belges, Professor at the Royal Military School, Brussels, Member of the Mathematical Research Centre of Belgium, Member of the Association des Actuaires Suisses, Advanced Fellow of the Belgian-American Educational Foundation, Member of the Centre de recherches mathématiques de Belgique.
- JOHANSEN, PAUL, Member of the founder Committee of ASTIN. First Chairman of ASTIN and well known in international actuarial circles. Doctor of Science Copenhagen University, Actuary of the „Nye Danske af 1864”, Copenhagen, life branches from 1937, general branches from 1959, President of the Danish Actuarial Society 1953-59, Corresponding member of the Institute of Actuaries and of the Institut des Actuairees Français.

MADDEX, Sir George, Distinguished in international actuarial and statistical circles. Government Actuary of Great Britain 1946-58, Past President of the Institute of Actuaries, Honorary Fellow of Faculty of Actuaries, Fellow and past vice-president Royal Statistical Society.

Member of ASTIN Committee nominated by Permanent Committee.

MONIC, BOLESŁAW, Member of the founder Committee of ASTIN. Treasurer and Committee member ASTIN. After engineering studies at Danzig and actuarial studies at Berlin University was Assistant Actuary in various companies before his appointment as Joint Actuary of the „Assicurazioni Generali”, Trieste from 1936-1939. Since 1948 with the “General Reinsurance Company” of Amsterdam of which he is now Managing Director. Well known internationally for his energetic interest in actuarial aspects of non-life insurance and reinsurance.

PERRYMAN, FRANCIS SPENCER, Deputy Chairman of ASTIN Committee and past President of the Casualty Actuarial Society of which he is a Fellow. B.Sc. London University, Fellow of Institute of Actuaries and Associate of Society of Actuaries. Has held various actuarial and managerial posts with the “Royal” Insurance Co. Ltd. of England and is currently Assistant United States Manager, Vice President and Actuary of the “Royal-Globe” Insurance Group. Member of the Permanent Committee of the International Congress of Actuaries and of many learned and distinguished societies in N. America.

PHILIPSON, CARL, Distinguished for his many and varied contributions to actuarial and statistical science in Sweden. D.Sc. University of Stockholm. Also studied at London (Applied Statistics), Göttingen (Versicherungsmathematik) and at Rothamsted Experimental Station. Statistician in “Framtiden” and “Folket”, Actuary in “Samarbete” 1946-52, Consulting Actuary in the Swedish Association for Motor Third Party Liability Insurance 1953-58, From 1954 expert appointed by Swedish government for study in crop insurance, Member of many committees covering life insurance statistics, fire claims, motor insurance, modern accounting methods, actuarial research, electronic computers etc.

Member of ASTIN committee.

WILHELMSEN, LARS, Contributor of one of the papers to the first ASTIN meeting. After graduating from Oslo University worked in the „Gjensidige” Life Insurance Company. From 1945-48 manager of the Institute for insurance mathematics at Oslo University, where he lectured in insurance mathematics. Since 1948 Actuary of the “Storebrand”. Mainly interested in collective theory of risk on which he contributed a paper to the 14th International Congress of Actuaries in Madrid. In recent years has been working on the new tariffs for combined policies for dwellings, stores, etc., introduced in Norway 1957.