

RADIOCARBON UPDATES

New Laboratories

Two new laboratories, one Czech and one French, are included in our annual listing of active radiocarbon laboratories. Many changes were made to this year's list, and we ask that you please email any future corrections or updates to Managing Editor Mark McClure, mcclure@radiocarbon.org.

Upcoming Conferences

19th International Radiocarbon Conference

The 19th International Radiocarbon Conference will be held in Oxford, at Keble College, from April 3–7, 2006. Abstracts can be submitted online via the conference Web site: <http://www.rlaha.ox.ac.uk/c14/conference19>. Further announcements regarding the conference will be sent out via email and posted on the Radiocarbon Web site.

2006 Society of American Archaeology

Join the nearly 4000 participants in next year's SAA meeting in San Juan, Puerto Rico, 26–30 April 2006. Radiocarbon will be an exhibitor at the conference. Papers should be submitted online at www.saa.org.
