MIKROKOSMOS
by BÉLA BARTÓK

"Mikrokosmos" is a collection of 153 graded piano pieces which form a comprehensive course in the playing and understanding of modern music. It is also of immense value in the study of pianistic technique in all its aspects. Each of the pieces is complete and interesting in itself, and they range in difficulty from the simplest melodies in Book I to concert studies, such as the well known "From the Diary of a Fly," in Book VI.

Vol. I Nos. 1-36 (very easy) 5/-
Vol. II Nos. 37-66 (easy) 5/-
Vol. III Nos. 67-96 (mod. easy) 5/-
Vol. IV Nos. 97-121 (mod. easy) 7/-
Vol. V Nos. 122-153 (difficult) 7/-

These pieces are an education of the mind as well as of the hands... Bartók's little world is an antechamber to the great world of music."

(The Times).

"Each piece is the perfect presentation of a certain technical problem."

(Modern Music, New York).

"Mikrokosmos" should certainly be in the hands of all students, young or old."

(The Sunday Times).

"It is an astonishing work. Bartók's aim was to write a textbook; his achievement is to have written one of the most vital and far reaching works of this century." (The Observer).
