Modern Intellectual History publishes scholarship in intellectual and cultural history from 1650 onwards, with primary attention to Europe and the United States but also to trans-national developments that encompass the non-West.

Subscriptions
Modern Intellectual History (ISSN 1479-2443) is published three times a year, in April, August and November. Three parts form a volume. The subscription price, which includes delivery by air where appropriate (but excluding VAT), of volume 14, 2017, which includes print and electronic access, is $187.00 (US $146.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for institutions; $34.00 (US $31.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for individuals, which includes print only. Students ordering direct from the publishers and certifying that the journal is for their personal use may subscribe to the print version at $23.00 (US $19.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico). The electronic-only price available to institutions is $124.00 (US $97.00). Single parts are $16.00 (US $14.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) plus postage. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT may order at their country’s rate. VAT registered members should provide their VAT registration number. Japanese prices for institutions (including ASP delivery) are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, P.O. Box 35, Chitose, Tokyo 156, Japan.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life. This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world’s forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.

Instructions for contributors
MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and its related fields, from the period of 1650 to the present. Though its primary focus is on Europe and the United States, it also devotes attention to global intellectual and cultural exchanges. In so doing, MIH concerns itself primarily with apprehending the contextual origins and receptions of texts in order to recover their historical meanings. But we understand ‘texts’ in the broadest sense, so as to encompass multiple forms of intellectual and cultural expression. These include, but are not limited to, political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, both the social sciences and the natural sciences, music, architecture and the visual arts.

1. Submissions
Articles submitted for consideration should be sent to Modern Intellectual History, Boston University, Department of History, 33 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215, USA. Email muff@bu.edu

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation
Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MIH. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/journal_ModernIntellectualHistory

The recommended length of articles is 10,000–12,000 words including footnotes. The recommended length of review essays is 5,000 words including footnotes.

Articles should normally be written in English. Spelling may follow either British or American conventions. Contributors who hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media may write in another language, but permission should be sought from Cambridge or from the American branch of Cambridge University Press.

Modern Intellectual History is included in the Cambridge Journals Online service which can be found at http://journals.cambridge.org. For further information on other Press journals access http://cambridge.org/journals.
