The Urban Morgan Institute for International Human Rights

TRAINING CITIZENS OF THE WORLD

Established at the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 1979, the Urban Morgan Institute for Human Rights is the first endowed institute at a U.S. law school devoted to international human rights law.

The Institute educates and trains human rights lawyers to promote and protect human rights in the international arena and serves as a model for other human rights programs around the world. Urban Morgan director Bert B. Lockwood serves as Editor-in-Chief of the Human Rights Quarterly, widely recognized as the leading academic journal in the human rights field.

International Law at Iowa

For the past 40 years, Iowa Law has had an International and Comparative Law Program. We offer the Advanced Standing JD, LLM, SJD, as well as the traditional three-year JD. In any given year, nearly ten percent of our students are from outside the United States, and we host numerous international scholars for the semester or the year. Our library, one of the largest in an American law school, has over 1.4 million titles and continues to grow. Nearly one-third of our faculty are involved in the field of International and Comparative Law.
