

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE CLAY MINERALS SOCIETY
26th ANNUAL MEETING—38th ANNUAL
CLAY MINERALS CONFERENCE

Red Lion Inn
Sacramento, California
September 23–28, 1989

Scientific Program (September 25–28)

- George W. Brindley — W. D. Johns
 Lecture
- Pioneer in Clay — H. van Olphen
 Science Lecture
- Symposia — Clays as Containment Barriers
 — Clays as Fundamental & Mixed-Layer Particles
- General Technical — Oral sessions
 Sessions — Poster sessions

CMS Workshop—Rheology of Clay/Water Systems

- Topics — Concepts of flow
 — Double-layer theory
 — Testing procedures
- Further Information — Necip Güven
 Department of Geosciences
 Texas Tech University
 Lubbock, Texas 79409
 806-742-3110

Field Trips

- Pre-meeting (September 24) Chlorite series of Flagstaff Hill (half-day)
- Mid-meeting (September 26) Kaolinite deposits of the Ione Formation (full-day)
- Post-meeting (September 29, 30) Commercial bentonite deposits of California and Nevada (two-days) (I. E. Odom, coordinator)

Sponsoring Institution—California State University, Sacramento

Further Information: J. L. Post
General Chairman
Dept. Civil Engineering
California State University
Sacramento, California 95819
919-278-6081

R. L. Burtner & M. G. Reed
Technical Program Co-Chairmen
Chevron Oil Field Research Co.
P.O. Box 446
La Habra, California 90631
213-694-7516, 7319