African Journal of Ecology

Published for the East African Wildlife Society

African Journal of Ecology (formerly East African Wildlife Journal) was inaugurated to meet the growing need for an authoritative organ for the dissemination of the results of scientific research into East Africa's wildlife. Its scope has since been widened to include original research papers which make a significant contribution to the study of the plant and animal ecology of Africa, and comprehensive reviews and brief communications are now regular features.

Manuscripts for publication should be submitted to the Editor, Professor F.I.B. Kayanja, Department of Veterinary Anatomy and Histology, Makerere University, P.O. Box 7062, Kampala, Uganda

Subscription Information

African Journal of Ecology is published quarterly.

Subscription rates for 1983 are:

£52.00 (U.K.)

£62.50 (overseas)

$126.00 (U.S.A. & Canada)

people and the environment

People is a unique illustrated magazine on Third World development. It is packed with news, first-hand reports and superb photographs.

People is of particular interest to environmentalists because each issue contains Earthwatch, an 8-page supplement on environmental topics.

People keeps track of news in a score of related fields from food to family planning. It is an exceptional source of information on this broad range of development subjects.

At least once a year, readers receive a free colour wallchart on some aspect of demography or development.

Recent issues of Earthwatch have included major articles on Saving the Sahel, Threatened People of the Forests, Erosion of the Earth's Topsoil, Housing since Habitat.

People magazine has covered the Arab World, Asia and the Pacific and Family Planning Incentives. The latest issue of People/Earthwatch, on Population and the Environment, prepared in collaboration with IUCN. It includes a full-colour wallchart on Population and Resources, a joint production of Earthwatch and the World Wildlife Fund.

Published quarterly in English and French by the International Planned Parenthood Federation in London, People is available on subscription of US$15.00 a year, airmail post paid (£5.00 UK only).

SPECIAL OFFER: We will send a free copy of the environment issue of People to each new subscriber. Simply return the form below with your payment to ensure you receive your free copy.

To: IPPF Distribution (Environment offer) 18-20 Lower Regent Street, London SW1Y 4PW,

Please enter my subscription for the next four issues of People in English/French* — and send me immediately my free copy of the latest issue on Population and the Environment. I enclose a cheque for US$15.00 (£5.00 UK only)
