y Press
Universit
v Cambridge
lished online by
q
7222 Pub
400237222
7/S0003055400237222
/S0003055400237222

Five abstracts for a dime	True False Don't know
answer: it's true References can be chean

- ★ Wrong answer: it's true. References can be cheap.
 - For US $125,* International Political Science Abstracts, published since 1951 by the International Political Science Association (IPSA), will provide in 1985 6,000 abstracts of political science articles published in over 800 journals and yearbooks. The scope is broad, coverage is worldwide. Articles in English (two thirds of all) are abstracted in English. Those in other languages are abstracted in French, with titles always translated into English. Publication is bimonthly, with one double issue each year. All issues have a detailed subject index; the final issue of each annual volume has an author index and a cumulated subject index.
- ★ How do I know it's useful? attractively printed? easy to handle?
- ★ Find out. Write for a free specimen. Compare for coverage, currency and cost. Ask for advice. Reflect, and investigate. To how many political science journals can your library afford to subscribe? How many can it keep on hand? How many come from abroad? Is it in danger of becoming parochial? What about even your brightest students, the hope of the discipline? And what about you?

Access to the whole world of political science periodicals can be had at minimal cost. Why hesitate, when you can act decisively? Make up your mind.

And then, please be good. And brave. Test your influence over your friendly librarian. Political scientists are persuasive. IPSA depends on you to help it keep political science international.

Thanks.

Serge Hurtig, Editor

- P.S. If your main library already has a subscription, an additional one for your department will be charged at half-price.
 - *Subscription rate for institutions (1985). For their private use, individuals pay only $37.50—one dime will buy exactly 16 abstracts!
- To International Political Science Abstracts, 27, rue Saint-Giullaume, 75341 PARIS CEDEX 07, France. A specimen will be sent to you by return mail.

SUPREME COURT STATECRAFT The Rule of Law AND Men WALLACE MENDELSON

"Professor Mendelson has once again demonstrated why he has so long been among the leading interpreters and connoisseurs of our constitutional constellation and the judicial role within it. He not only writes with insight and nononsense analytical power, he does so elegantly and with commendable economy of words."—Henry J. Abraham, James Hart Professor, University of Virginia

"I am genuinely delighted to see this book come into the marketplace. It reflects scholarship of a very high order, a wide-ranging intelligence, and a sharp pen."—David Fellman, Vilas Professor of Political Science Emeritus, University of Wisconsin-Madison Incisive and perceptive, this collection of essays examines the unique American blend of law and judicial discretion in Supreme Court history. Wallace Mendelson explores basic constitutional dilemmas in chapters on the judge's art, freedom of expression, the Fourteenth Amendment catchall, judicial review, jurimetrics, and future legal trends. Supreme Court Statecraft: The Rule of Law AND Men will provide vital reference material for graduate and undergraduate students of constitutional law, law school students, practicing lawyers and judges, and anyone fascinated with the complexities of law in general. (ISBN 0-8138-1047-7, cloth, 352 pp., $21.95 plus $1.50 post./handl.)

Dept. A, 2121 South State Avenue, Ames, IA 50010

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS

EDITED BY
KEITH G. BANTING
AND RICHARD SIMEON

REDESIGNING THE STATE

THE POLITICS OF CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE IN INDUSTRIAL NATIONS Ten political scientists focus on the recent constitutional experience of the United States, Canada, Spain, Belgium, the United Kingdom, West Germany and eastern Europe including Poland.

They identify general patterns of constitutional politics and identify the pressures which lead to change.

Cloth $30.00, paper $14.50

University of Toronto Press

33 East Tupper Street, Buffalo NY 14203

New titles

Racial Attitudes in America

Trends and Interpretations Howard Schuman, Charlotte Steeh, and Lawrence Bobo

This book traces changes in American attitudes toward racial issues that have taken place between the 1940s and the 1980s. The authors' wide research base yields conclusions quite different from those of earlier, more narrowly drawn studies.

Social Trends in the United States

$22.50

The Diary of Beatrice Webb

Volume IV: "The Wheel of Life", 1924–1943

Edited by Norman MacKenzie and Jeanne MacKenzie

The last volume of Beatrice Webb's remarkable diary is a vigorous and detailed chronicle of the Webbs' influential lives between the two world wars.

Belknap

$25.00

Takings

Private Property and the Power of Eminent Domain Richard A. Epstein

Epstein makes a detailed analysis of recent developments in law and economics and the theory of collective choice to find in the eminent domain clause a theory of political obligation that he claims is superior to any of its modern rivals.

$25.00

The World of Thought in Ancient China

Benjamin I. Schwartz

The center of this prodigious work of scholarship is a fresh examination of the range of Chinese thought during the formative period of Chinese culture. Benjamin Schwartz looks at the surviving texts of this period with a particular focus on the range of diversity to be found in them.

827.50

The Essayes or Counsels, Civill and Morall

Sir Francis Bacon Edited by Michael Kiernan

Bacon's essays reflect the experience and wide-reading of a Renaissance man. This, the first critical edition since the nineteenth century, uses modern editorial standards to establish an authoritative, unmodernized text.

$30.00

Harvard University Press Cambridge, MA 02138

Helmut Schmidt Strategy

Grand Strategy for the West___

Timely, original, and hard-hitting prescriptions for U.S. and Western policy from the former West German chancellor in "a fascinating and totally engrossing book that abounds in wisdom and bite."
—Cyrus Vance

"Forceful but always rational criticism and prescriptions, covering a wider range than almost any other contemporary statesman could command."—Robert S. McNamara

"A vital book for current and aspiring leaders, as well as for all those concerned about the health and future prospects of the industrial democracies."—Gen. Brent Scowcroft $12.95

A Grand Strategy for the West

The Anachronism of National Strategies in an Interdependent World

Helmut Schmidt Foreword by William P. Bundy

Send orders to Dept. 60J Yale University Press 92A Yale Station New Haven, CT 06520

Let the Eagle Soar The Foreign Policy of Andrew Jackson By John M. Belohlavek

"The only full-scale examination of Jackson's foreign policy and a study that is sorely needed."—Robert Remini, University of Illinois at Chicago. "An extremely valuable contribution."—
Edward Pessen, City University of New York. Studies of Jackson's two terms as president have, until now, focused on his conduct of domestic affairs. Old Hickory has been portrayed as having had little thought for foreign affairs. But Belohlavek argues that Jackson not only had a coherent and often successful foreign policy, but a diplomacy of vision and imagination. $28.95

Food, the State, and International Political Economy

Dilemmas of Developing Countries
Edited by F. LaMond Tullis and W. Ladd Hollist

In the 1980s, famine has claimed millions of lives in Africa; undernutrition has stalked the highlands of Central and South America and Mexico; food shortages have occurred in India and Egypt. Rapid population growth, technology, government policies, and environmental issues now confront developing nations. In this important new volume, eleven political and social scientists examine the nature of recent major changes in the political economy of global agriculture and their effects. $29.95

de Witherwax

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA PRESS 901 NORTH 17TH, LINCOLN, NE 68588

Oxford:

The Judicial Process

An Introductory Analysis of the Courts of the United States, England, and France

Fifth Edition

HENRY J. ABRAHAM, University of Virginia. "An indispensable book for students—beginning or professional—of American constitutionalism and the legal process."—Anthony Lewis, The New York Times (on the fourth edition). Written by one of our country's most astute observers of the court, this book examines the theory, practice, and people behind the judicial processes in three western nations. The fifth edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to chronicle key developments under Carter and Reagan, and discusses major changes in judicial processes, powers, and roles both at home and abroad.

January 1986 604 pp.; 4 tables paper $13.95

Also by Henry J. Abraham

Justices and Presidents

A Political History of Appointments to the Supreme Court

Second Edition

"Essential reading for students of both the Supreme Court and the Presidency." — Martin Shapiro, U.C.L.A. Law School. "A masterpiece of scholarly analysis. The pathbreaking achievement of 1974 has been thoroughly updated to incorporate the scholarship and events of the last decade. It remains the definitive work in the field of Supreme Court appointments." — Stanley C. Brubaker, Colgate University. This mini-history of the Court, now expanded by more than a third, discusses the selection, nomination, and appointment of each of the 102 justices who have sat on the U.S. Supreme Court since 1789.

1985 430 pp. cloth $28.00 paper $9.95

Free Government in the Making

Fourth Edition

Edited by ALPHEUS MASON, Princeton University, and GORDON E. BAKER, University of California, Santa Barbara. "An absolutely indispensable book for American political philosophy and thought courses."—Joseph E. Walsh, Stockton State College (on the third edition). An authoritative and comprehensive collection of documents on American political thought, this classic anthology has now been thoroughly revised and updated. The fourth edition includes extensive new material on women's role in the development of American political thought and documentation of the contribution of minorities.

1985 992 pp. $24.95

Politics, Position, and Power From the Positive to the Regulatory State

Fourth Edition

HAROLD SEIDMAN and ROBERT S. GILMOUR, both of the University of Connecticut. Today, a high proportion of government services are provided indirectly by third parties, including state and local governments, nonprofit corporations, and other private institutions, with relevant rules and regulations increasingly determined by the courts rather than by the government bureaucracy. This substantially revised fourth edition of a now-classic work presents an inside view of federal administration as it affects and is affected by competing forces for power, position, and political advantage. New material on the Reagan administration and a new chapter on the courts are included. On earlier editions: "Excellent.... ties together organizational theory and the political system [very] well."—Gerald M. Pops, West Virginia University. "A cogent perspective on the functioning of American government....a seminal book."—Larry Berman, University of California, Davis

February 1986 448 pp. paper $13.95

Readings in Social and Political Philosophy

Edited by ROBERT M. STEWART, Pomona College. This anthology of readings in social and political philosophy emphasizes the liberal currents of modern Western political thought—variants of classical liberalism, modern liberalism, and libertarianism. Selections from the classic readings—Locke's Second Treatise of Government, Mill's On Liberty, Rousseau's The Social Contract—are grouped together with essays reflecting current interests of scholars in the field. Topics considered include obligation and consent, freedom and coercion, equality and property, justice and rights, and democracy and representation. The book is unique in its combination of lengthy selections from the classics and significant current writings, many of which are not widely available. February 1986 512 pp. paper $16.95

The Moral Dimensions of Politics

RICHARD J. REGAN, Fordham University. This book explores the moral dimensions of public policy from an Aristotelian-Thomistic philosophical perspective. Regan begins with a thorough exposition of natural law theory and proposes ways in which ethical conclusions can be drawn from it. In defining the nature of man within organized society, he articulates a middle position between the radical individualism of Hobbes and Locke and the collectivism of Marx. Regan then goes on to link natural law theory to an analysis of particular areas of public policy as diverse as public morals, social justice, and the morality of warfare.

March 1986 256 pp. cloth $24.95 paper $10.95

Prices and publication dates are subject to change.

To request an examination copy write on school letterhead giving full course information including course name, level, and enrollment to College Humanities and Social Sciences Marketing Dept.

Oxford University Press

()xford

The Pathology of Public Policy

BRIAN W. HOGWOOD, University of Strathclyde, and B. GUY PETERS, University of Pittsburgh. Building on the analogy between the human body and the body politic, this study uses the language of medical pathology to investigate the disorders some governments suffer in making and implementing public policy. Seven categories of pathologies are discussed in light of the dynamics of the disease process, diagnosis and suggested treatment, and the potential dangers of the treatment itself.

1985 208 pp.; 1 fig. cloth $24.95 paper $10.50

Labour and the British State

BARRY JONES, University College, Cardiff, and MICHAEL KEATING, University of Strathclyde. In recent years, four issues have emerged that underline the Labour Party's historically ambivalent attitude toward the State: Labour's attitude toward the machinery of the State; Labour's relationship to the industrial State; Labour's identification with the territorial integrity of the State in the face of rising Scottish and Welsh nationalism; and Labour's response to the threats posed to the State's sovereignty by the Northern Ireland conflict and Britain's membership in the European Community. This study explores the implications of these four issues. 1985 224 pp. cloth $24.95 paper $11.95

Regions in the European Community

Edited by MICHAEL KEATING and BARRY JONES. This important collection of essays draws on the varied experiences of five member states of the European Community and the four parts of Great Britain to address regional interests. The contributors examine and assess the effectiveness of the elaborate networks that have developed to express regional interests in community policy-making, networks that link regional governments, interest groups, national governments, the Commission, the Council of Ministers, and the European parliament.

1985 272 pp.; 3 figs. $29.95

British Politics

Continuities and Change

DENNIS KAVANAGH, Nottingham University. This comprehensive and up-to-date volume not only looks at the familiar issues of British politics and government—Cabinet, Parliament, parties, local government, and pressure groups—but also at those that are less frequently explored—political culture, corporatism, the mass media, political recruitment, and the politics of economic decline. The book covers the 1970s and 1980s.

1985—320 pp. cloth $24.95 paper $9.95

The Moral and Political Writings of Mahatma Gandhi

Edited by RAGHAVAN IYER, author of Moral & Political Thought of Mahatma Gandhi. The first in a series of three, this volume brings together the seminal writings of Mahatma Gandhi in an accessible form. The Collected Works of Gandhi run to ninety volumes. The editor of this series has selected the most important of Gandhi's writings on morality, politics, religion, non-violent resistance, and a host of other

1985 500 pp.; frontis. $49.95

Political Ensembles

A Psychosocial Approach to Politics and Leadership

GRAHAM LITTLE, University of Melbourne. Arguing that voters are more concerned with a party's leader than with its exact policies, this study presents a new approach to politics and the electoral psyche. Little sets forth his own profiles of three main types of leaders—Strong, Group, and Inspiring, as exemplified by Thatcher, Carter, and Kennedy, respectively—and their three discrete "project" types.

1985—230 pp. $29.95

Now available in paperback

Revival and Reaction

The Right in Contemporary America

GILLIAN PEELE

1984 (paper 1985) 200 pp. cloth $24.95 paper $14.95

Prices are subject to change.

To order, send check or money order to: Humanities and Social Sciences Marketing Department

Oxford University Press
200 Madison Avenue • New York, NY 10016

New from Pittsburgh

THE PRESIDENCY AND PUBLIC POLICY MAKING Edited by George C. Edwards III, Steven A. Shull, and Norman C. Thomas

Leading scholars such as Richard Rose, Benjamin Page, James Anderson, and Joseph Cooper focus on diverse aspects of presidential policy making, providing fresh insights on the presidency and its relationship to other policy-making institutions.

December 1985/approx. 256 pp./$24.95 cloth, $9.95 paper

PERCEPTIONS AND BEHAVIOR IN SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY by Richard K. Herrmann

In an analysis of Soviet perceptions of U.S. behavior based on a series of worldwide confrontations in the 1960s and 1970s, Richard K. Herrmann concludes that the U.S.S.R.'s arms build-up may be motivated by what Soviet leaders regard as a U.S. threat.

December 1985/approx. 352 pp./$31.95 cloth

THE UNITED STATES AND LATIN AMERICA IN THE 1980s: CONTENDING PERSPECTIVES ON A DECADE OF CRISIS Edited by Kevin J. Middlebrook and Carlos Rico

This important book examines key issues in current hemispheric relations from both U.S. and Latin American perspectives. Contributors include Sergio Bitar, Cole Blasier, Margaret E. Crahan, James R. Kurth, Carlos Massad, Guillermo O'Donnell, Gregory F. Treverton, Laurence Whitehead, and Howard J. Wiarda.

January 1986/approx. 640 pp./$34.95 cloth, $16.95 paper

Available at bookstores or by calling toll free 800-638-3030 (Maryland residents call collect 301-824-7300).

University of Pittsburgh Press Pittsburgh, PA 15260

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0003055400237222 Published online by Cambridge University Press

TASK MASTERS.

Whatever the analytical challenge, SPSS Software Products are ready for action.

For thousands of applications, in virtually any computer environment, whether mainframe, mini or PC, SPSS Products are serving the needs of analysts and researchers around the world. We offer a full family of proven programs, including:

■ SPSS-X.™

The result of over 18 years of refinement, this is the complete, integrated information analysis system. With SPSS-X, users can easily manage complex files, perform sophisticated statistics and generate presentation-ready reports—without prior programming knowledge.

TABLES.

An optional module for SPSS-X that lets you create publication quality tables of limitless variety. Summarize sales, census and survey data with nested tables. Or display several tables together. Layout, format and content are all easily controlled.

■ SPSS* GRAPHICS.

A full color, menu-driven product that automatically aggregates and manipulates data to create boardroom quality charts, graphs and maps. SPSS Graphics gives you complete control over composition and design elements.

■ SPSS/PC.™

The most comprehensive statistical package available for the IBM PC/XT and AT with 320K memory and hard disk. It maintains feature and language compatibility with mainframe SPSS,* while optimizing for the PC environment. A micro-mainframe communications link is included.

Add superior documentation and support, and you'll know why SPSS products are mastering analytical tasks in over 80 countries. To learn what our task force can do for your organization, call or write the SPSS Marketing Department today.

SPSS Inc. 444 N. Michigan Avenue Chicago, IL 60611 312/329-3500 In Europe, contact: SPSS Benelux B.V. P.O. Box 115 4200 AC Gorinchem, The Netherlands Phone: + 31183036711, TWX: 21019

SPSS Inc. PRODUCTIVITY RAISED TO THE HIGHEST POWER"

BROOKINGS

Religion in American Public Life A. James Reichley

Focusing on the continuing controversy over the separation of church and state, this timely book examines the historical interaction of religious groups, governments, and the courts in America. It considers the values that public life and religion share and discusses how they can continue to interact without threat to civil liberties or religious freedom. ". . . an informative tour of American history, pointing out the theological bedrock upon which the nation was built." Kirkus Reviews. ". . . a fairminded, comprehensive survey of critical developments; in a field that generates much passion it sheds a calm and cool light." Michael Novak.

October 1985/402 pages/paper $11.95/cloth $31.95

Constitutional Reform and Effective Government James L. Sundquist

As the United States prepares to celebrate the bicentennial of the Constitution, thoughtful citizens, frustrated by the recurrent conflict and deadlock between the President and Congress, are debating whether the time has come to change the fundamental structure of the government. This volume reviews that debate and raises practical questions about what changes might work best. "... the most thorough and trenchant analysis of the weaknesses of our Constitutional structure of government by any scholar since, perhaps Woodrow Wilson . . . thoughtful, discerning, and provocative." Former Congressman Richard Bolling. "This is a remarkably good book. It is cool, thoughtful, insightful, balanced, and wise. It has anticipated what will undoubtedly be considerable public debate." Aaron Wildavsky.

January 1986/c. 250 pages/paper $9.95/cloth $26.95

The Brookings Institution

1775 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 797-6258

BROOKINGS

African Crisis Areas and U.S. Foreign Policy Edited by GERALD J. BENDER, JAMES S. COLEMAN, and RICHARD L. SKLAR

A provocative presentation of the major African crisis areas, such as southern Africa, the Horn of Africa, and the Sahara, and the U.S. responses to them, written by major scholars and specialists from the U.S and abroad. By presenting the so-called "Africanist" case fully, this volume attempts to bridge the gap between scholarship and policy.

$40.00 cloth, $9.95 paper

To the Storm

The Odyssey of a Revolutionary Chinese Woman YUE DAIYUN and CAROLYN WAKEMAN

Here for the first time a highly placed Chinese intellectual tells her own story—at once a harrowing account of human suffering and endurance and a record of intense patriotic devotion and political commitment. Though filled with suffering and upheaval, Yue's story is not a tragic one, for it expresses the passion of revolutionary commitment perenially renewed. Anyone who seeks to understand the loyalty and devotion of Chinese intellectuals to their revolution will want to read this compelling chronicle. $17.95

Lions of the Punjab Culture in the Making RICHARD G. FOX

Fox examines the economic, political, and social forces which led to the Third Sikh War. He offers a conception of culture that criticizes cultural, structural, or technoenvironmental determinism commonly found in anthropology. $29.95

Spain After Franco

The Making of a Competitive Party System RICHARD GUNTHER, GIACOMO SANI, and GOLDIE SHABAD

This book focuses on competitive politics in Spain—their nature and development. The authors examine the interplay between the party-building and electoral strategies adopted by the new elites and the political orientations and behavior of the mass public. $37.50

At bookstores or call 800-UC BOOKS / 800-822-6657

UNIVERSITY OF

California

Hitler's Stalingrad Decisions GEOFFREY JUKES

Jukes analyzes the successive phases of Hitler's decisions in the Russian campaign that ended with the great defeat at Stalingrad. His is a significant contribution to our understanding of general issues military and political leadership in crises and, in particular of Hitler's personal responsibility for the German debacle at Stalingrad. $27.50

PRESS Berkeley 94720

Governing the Island of Montreal

Language Differences and Metropolitan Politics ANDREW SANCTON

Sancton describes the workings of a society divided by language and ethnicity where the pervasiveness of politics of language impedes all plans for comprehensive reform. $28.50

Governing Metropolitan Indianapolis The Politics of Unigov C. JAMES OWEN and YORK WILLBERN

The authors trace the Unigov movement from its initiation to its involvement with informal organizations which supplied the necessary support. This study analyzes the workings of the movement and the special circumstances that made such an unusual consolidation possible. $29.95

Regulatory Policy and the Social Sciences Edited by ROGER G. NOLL

Research on government regulation neglects the political and social forces that bring about changes in regulatory policy. In this volume scholars from several disciplines focus on these important and inadequately explored issues. $42.50

Mechanics of the Middle Class

Work and Politics Among American Engineers ROBERT ZUSSMAN

Zussman explores the industrial routines and social sentiments of the American engineers and their location in the class structure. He suggests a possible alliance between middle-level employees and workers arising from shared interests as citizens and homeowners. $27.50

New in paper_

Abortion and the Politics of Motherhood KRISTIN LUKER

"A lucid, fair-minded and, most importantly, convincing analysis of the contemporary debate about abortion....(This book) demonstrates beyond any reasonable doubt that the controversy derives its intensity not from differences of ideology or religion but from the radically antithetical social circumstances of the combatants."

-New York Times Book Review

$7.95

Black Box KAL 007 and the Superpowers ALEXANDER DALLIN

"Dallin...does an admirable job of assembling the available information and dispassionately examining the theories. His is an important book on several counts."

-New York Times

"Dallin's book is particularly helpful in understanding the state of U.S.-Soviet relations and the two countries' reactions after the incident."—Washington Post $6.95

Strong Democracy

Participatory Politics for a New Age BENJAMIN BARBER

"His distinctive contribution is not to develop a legislative package but to sketch a way of looking at politics from which a stronger democratic practice might emerge.

... His approach is original and provocative."

—New York Times Book Review

$9.95

Chen Village

The Recent History of a Peasant Community in Mao's China

ANITA CHAN, RICHARD MADSEN, and JONATHAN UNGER

"Chen Village throws a bright spotlight on a single village. In illuminating the past, it provides a firm basis for understanding the drastic, and apparently surprising, changes that have been taking place. This is an innovative and valuable study."—John S. Service $8.95

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0003055400237222 Published online by Cambridge University Press

Princeton University Press

Economic Statecraft

David A. Baldwin

"This book is one of the three or four most significant new contributions to either foreign policy analysis or international political economy that I have read in the last decade. It is one of those works that bring a fresh perspective to a subject that has been analyzed at length, and it suggests strongly that the most prominent authors on the subject have made major errors in drawing inferences. Baldwin is simply brilliant at logical construction and reconstruction. The book will be a stimulus and model to anyone who aspires to logical clarity, on any subject."

—John S. Odell, University of Southern California LPE: $12.50. C: $45.00

Origins of Containment

A Psychological Explanation Deborah Welch Larson

"This is a landmark work in foreign policy analysis. It uses the early history of the Cold War as a complex 'case' to analyze the applicability of a variety of theories of perception."

—Ernest R. May, Harvard University $35.00

Cooperation under Anarchy

Edited by Kenneth A. Oye

Drawing on a diverse set of historical cases in security and economic affairs, the contributors to this special issue of World Politics provide a unified explanation of the incidence of cooperation and conflict, and also suggest strategies to promote the emergence of cooperation.

P: $8.95. C: $27.50

Write for our new Social Sciences catalog

At your bookstore or -

41 William Street Princeton University Press Princeton, NJ 08540

NEW BOOKS BY DAVID HARVEY

CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE URBAN EXPERIENCE

THE URBANIZATION OF CAPITAL

STUDIES IN THE HISTORY AND THEORY OF CAPITALIST URBANIZATION

By reviewing such components of the urban process as the separation of workplace and living place, and the reorganization of social functions to meet capitalism's needs, Harvey shows how capitalism structures not only the city but the consciousness of its inhabitants as well. $22.50

This book examines capital as a process that unfolds through the production and allocation of physical and social space. The infrastructure, Harvey argues, has been built in capitalism's own image and reinforces the system of production it serves. $25.00

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY PRESS 701 West 40th Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21211

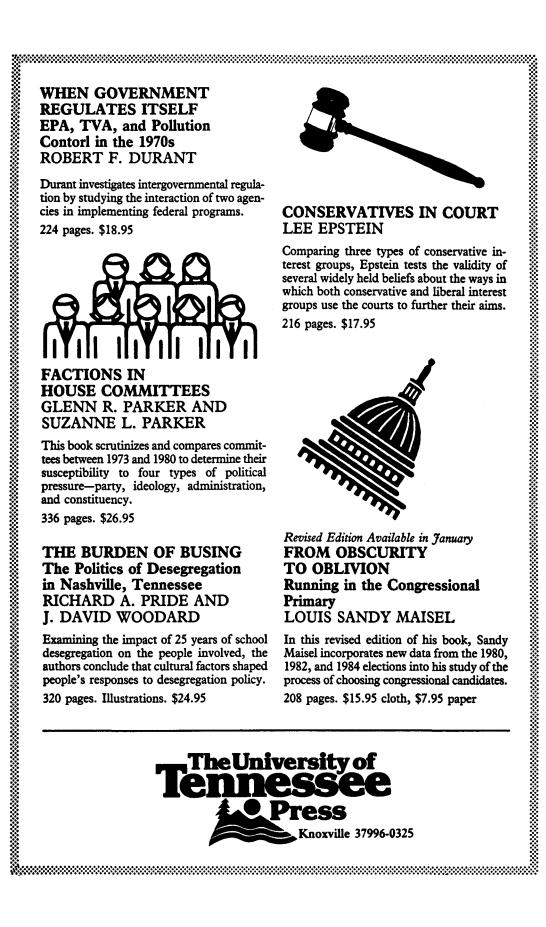

CHANGING YOUR ADDRESS?

If you are planning a move, please fill in the form below and return it to the American Political Science Association, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Address changes should be received at the Association by the 1st of the month to be included in the monthly update of the Association mailing list.

NAME
OLD ADDRESS
	Zip
NEW ADDRESS
	Zip

Lexington Books

Hydra of Carnage

International Linkages of Terrorism The Witnesses Speak

Uri Ra'anan, Robert L. Pfaltzgraff, Jr., Richard H. Shultz, Ernst Halperin, and Igor Lukes, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University

Detailed, fascinating information about the operational principles, infrastructures, and international and regional coordination of terrorist networks. International linkages of terrorism are exposed — linkages revealed by ranking members of the major U.S. enforcement agencies and by the captured documents and personal testimonies of former intelligence officials and leaders from the USSR and client states in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, and Central America. 544 pages ISBN 0-669-11135-x $42.00

The Lessons of Recent Wars in the Third World: Volume One Approaches and Case Studies

0-669-11136-8

$22.95

In paper:

Robert E. Harkavy, The Pennsylvania State University, and Stephanie G. Neuman, Columbia University, editors

This volume provides systematic information that non-military analysts need to uncover how wars in the Third World have been fought and what determines their outcome. Representing academia, the military, and the government, the authors examine a variety of analytical approaches and present case studies of eight recent conflicts in the Third World. These detailed examinations merge military history with national security policy and comparative social-scientific analysis. 320 pages ISBN 0-669-06765-2 $29.00

Lexington Books D.C. Heath & Company 125 Spring Street Lexington, MA 02173 (617) 860-1204

Fighting Back: Winning the War Against Terrorism

Neil C. Livingstone and Terrell E. Arnold, editors, The Institute on Terrorism and Subnational Conflict Foreword by Robert C. McFarlane

How should the United States respond to international terrorism?

"We can win the war against terrorism, but as this book makes clear, there are no shortcuts. In seeking to win, we must protect our values, institutions, friendships, and alliances, and we must help those with legitimate grievances to find ways of achieving just ends without resort to terrorism. This book helps to express those needs and to map many of the ways we might serve them; I strongly urge everyone who is interested in trying to understand and solve this problem to read it."-from the foreword

288 pages ISBN 0-669-10808-1 $28.00 In paper: 0-669-11139-2 $12.95

Security or Armageddon Israel's Nuclear Strategy

Louis René Beres, Purdue University, editor Israeli and American strategists debate the course Israel must choose in the shadow of the bomb. Wellknown specialists on international security affairs address such issues as whether Israel should continue with its "bomb in the basement" policy or disclose its nuclear capabilities. The book then examines Israel's strategic choices and the probable impact of those choices on American and Soviet foreign policy.

256 pages ISBN 0-669-09566-4 $25.00 In paper: 0-669-11131-7 $12.95

A Savifices Company

NEW FROM BROOKS/COLE POWER AND INFLUENCE:

An Introduction to International Relations

by D. G. Kousoulas,
Professor Emeritus at Howard University

Professor Kousoulas—the author of the widely used ON GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS now in its 5th edition—advances the study of international relations in this new book by focusing attention on the limitations of power and on the key role played by influence and transactional interactions in today's world.

With his lucid, engaging style, Kousoulas offers students an exciting, absorbing textbook.

Special feature: an INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS DIGEST.

For your free examination copy, send course information on letterhead stationery to

BOX APSA-85
Brooks/Cole Publishing Company
555 Abrego Street
Monterey, CA 93940

Cambridge

Powers of Theory

Capitalism, The State, and Democracy

Robert A. Alford and Roger Friedland

"An ambitious and sophisticated work of integration that brings together all the most important literature on modern democratic capitalist states within a single, overall, highly-illuminating argument."

"Alford and Friedland succeed in characterizing pluralist, managerial, and class perspectives on state and society under capitalism, in showing how each fails, and in sketching complementarities among them."

- Charles Tilly

"... the work is not only accessible to students, but will also be stimulating reading for seasoned academics - Erik Olin Wright interested in recent debates and new ideas."

1985

518 pp.

$14.95 (Also available in cloth)

Bringing the State Back In

Editors: Peter Evans, Dietrich Rueschemeyer and Theda Skocpol

This volume includes some of the best recent interdisciplinary scholarship on states in relation to social structures. The contributors make use of theoretically engaged comparative and historical investigations to provide improved conceptualizations of states and how they operate.

Contributors: Theda Skocpol, Dietrich Rueschemeyer, Peter B. Evans, Alice H. Amsden, Margaret Weir. Charles Tilly, Peter Katzenstein, Ira Katznelson, David Laitin, Alfred Stepan.

384 pp. $14.95 (Also available in cloth)

Public Employment in Western Nations

Richard Rose

With Edward Page, Andrea Cendali Pignatelli, Richard Parry, Klaus-Dieter Schmidt and B. Guy Peters

The product of collaborative research over the past six years, this book presents original and authoritative information about the size and nature of public employment in six major Western nations — Britain, America, France, Germany, Italy, and Sweden. Covering the period from the end of World War II up through and into the 1980s, the book shows how public employment is changing and identifies areas of rapid growth, comparing them with areas of relative stagnation.

1985

280 pp.

$39.50

Concorde and Dissent

Explaining High Technology Project Failures in Britain and France

Elliot J. Feldman

Conventional explanations of why the Concorde has proved to be a commercial failure, and of the separate and in some ways also unsuccessful projects to build new international airports in London and Paris, contrast French rational planning expertise with the amateurishness of the British. In this study, Professor Feldman challenges such stereotypes, arguing instead that policy failures in the two countries can be explained in terms of political instability. His book is unique in developing such detailed, controlled case-studies for the comparison of political systems, and offers new insights into public policy making in Britain and France. 1985 207 pp.

$34.50

All prices subject to change.

At bookstores or from

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

32 East 57th Street, New York, NY 10022 800-431-1580 (outside New York State and Canada) MasterCard and Visa accepted

ANNOUNCING MAJOR NEW

THE REAL STUFF

A History of NASA's Astronaut Recruitment Policy Joseph D. Atkinson, Jr. and Jay M. Shafritz

This book shows how NASA's management walked a tightrope between the technical needs of its programs and the needs of society in the choice of its astronauts. Well-researched, The Real Stuff offers a behind-the-scenes account of events surrounding the Mercury, Gemini, Apollo, and Skylab programs.

240 pp. 1985 $36.95 ISBN 0-03-005187-8 paper edition: $11.95 ISBN 0-03-005186-6

THE RUSSIAN DILEMMA

Revised Edition Robert Wesson

The revised and updated edition of The Russian Dilemma is an outstanding survey and analysis of Russia's development from the end of Mongol rule to the present day. Emphasizing the country's Eurasian heritage in history and geopolitics, the volume explains how Russia's geographical situation has led to the creation of a vast empire.

206 pp. 1985 $30.95 ISBN 0-03-002597-4 paper edition: $12.95 ISBN 0-03-002598-2

WOMEN IN THE HISTORY OF POLITICAL THOUGHT

Ancient Greece to Machiavelli Arlene W. Saxonhouse Women in Politics Series

1985

224 pp. ISBN 0-03-062202-6 paper edition: $10.95

ISBN 0-03-062201-8

$24.95

AMERICAN POLITICAL THEOLOGY

Historical Perspective and Theoretical Analysis Charles W. Dunn

208 pp. ISBN 0-03-071843-0 $29.95 paper edition: $12.95 ISBN 0-03-071844-9

POLITICAL COMMUNICATION IN AMERICA

Robert E. Denton, Jr. and Gary C. Woodward 384 pp. 1985 $42.95 ISBN 0-03-071326-9 paper edition: $15.95 ISBN 0-03-071324-2

THE SOVIET UNION AND THE THIRD WORLD

An Economic Bind Elizabeth Kridl Valenkier

paper edition: 208 pp. ISBN 0-03-006034-6 1985 $14.95

SOVIET POLITICS

Russia After Brezhnev edited by Joseph L. Nogee

256 pp. ISBN 0-03-064238-8 $27.95 paper edition: $12.95 ISBN 0-03-064237-X

Order from your local bookseller or direct from

PRAEGER PUBLISHERS

521 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10175

New and noteworthy from Agathon Press

POLITICAL SCIENCE: The Science of Politics

Edited by Herbert F. Weisberg

Published in cooperation with the American Political Science Association.*

CONTENTS

L THE SCIENCE OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

- Introduction: The Science of Politics and Political Change Herbert F. Weisberg
- 2. Political Science as Science Gerald H. Kramer
- 3. The Science of Politics and Its Limits Duncan MacRae. Jr.

II. THE SCIENCE OF POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS

- 4. Institutional Equilibrium and Equilibrium Institutions Kenneth A. Shepsle
- The Cycles of Legislative Change: Building a Dynamic Theory Lawrence C. Dodd
- 6. Presidential and Executive Studies: The One, the Few, and the Many Bert A. Rockman
- 7. The Social Science of Judicial Politics James L. Gibson
- 8. The Positive Theory of Hierarchies Gary J. Miller and Terry M. Moe

III. THE SCIENCE OF POLITICAL BEHAVIOR

- 9. Structural Estimation with Limited Variables Charles H. Franklin and John E. Jackson
- 10. The Dynamics of Public Opinion Richard G. Niemi
- Choice, Context, and Consequence: Beaten and Unbeaten Paths toward a Science of Electoral Behavior Paul Allen Beck
- Model Choice in Political Science: The Case of Voting Behavior Research, 1946-1975

Herbert F. Weisberg

Index to authors cited

*The contributions to this volume have been adapted from theme papers delivered at the 1983 APSA Annual Meeting.

December 1985 / 320 pages Cloth, $32.00 / Paper, $15.00

Send order with check or institutional purchase order to AGATHON PRESS, INC., 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, NY 10011

Look at the scope of our political inquiry.

Political Facts of the United States, 1789–1984

Erik W. Austin; with the assistance of Jerome M. Clubb. The only book of its kind, assembling a wealth of facts and statistics on American political history through the 1984 elections. 450 pp., $45.00 (February)

Still the Golden Door

The Third World Comes to America

David M. Reimers. "This is the first comprehensive survey of United States immigration policy that covers the period since 1945. It is readable, intelligently done, and of great contemporary significance. No one concerned with American development since the end of World War II should ignore this book."—Leonard Dinnerstein, University of Arizona. 319 pp., $25.00

American Myth and the Legacy of Vietnam

John Hellmann. "... quite simply, the most sophisticated analysis of the literary reflection of America's involvement in Vietnam."

- Robert D. Schulzinger. 256 pp., photos, $24.95

The Politics of Insurgency

The Farm Worker Movement in the 1960s

J. Craig Jenkins. "The best history to date of unionism in recent American agricultural history."—Library Journal. 261 pp., $30.00

Politics and Statesmanship

Essays on the American Whig Party

Thomas Brown. Reappraises the Whig party and their efforts to manage the tensions between civic ideals of Republican ideology and the operating realities of the Jacksonian era. 328 pp., $32.50

The U.S. Economy in World War II

Harold G. Vatter. Evaluates the significance of the war years upon American economic history from two perspectives: overall changes in government policies, and major social developments of the war era. Columbia Studies in Business, Government, and Society, Eli M. Noam, General Editor. 224 pp. $25.00

In Pursuit of Power

Southern Blacks and Electoral Politics, 1965–1982

Steven F. Lawson. Have black southerners gained political power along with voting rights? Contemporary American History Series, William E. Leuchtenburg, General Editor. 416 pp., $30.00

Winner of the Bancroft Prize

The Washington Community, 1800–1828

James Sterling Young. Now in paperback. 307 pp., $10.00 pa

Under Siege

P.L.O. Decisionmaking During the 1982 War

Rashid Khalidi. A fascinating, often terrifying firsthand account of the 1982 war in Lebanon by a Palestinian who lived through the massacre. Using many revealing sources—such as P.L.O. telexes and government communiques—Khalidi tells a compelling story of life amid the fighting and provides an unusually informed perspective on the Arab-Israeli conflict. 224 pp., $22.50

Western Security

The Formative Years

Olva Riste, Editor. Traces the development of Atlantic security policy during the early phases of the Cold War, covering the Dunkirk Treaty, the Truman Doctrine, and the formation of NATO. 410 pp., $39.00

Land, Labor, and Rural Poverty

Essay in Development Economics

Pranab K. Bardhan. Using the agrarian economy of India as a frame of reference, Bardhan explores a series of issues in development economics. 288 pp., $30.00

Winner of the Bernath Prize

The Making of a Special Relationship

The United States and China to 1914 Michael H. Hunt. Now in paperback. 416 pp., $12.50

New in _

The Political Economy of International Change Series

John Gerard Ruggie, General Editor

Economic Security and the Origins of the Cold War, 1945–1950

Robert A. Pollard. Argues that American economic diplomacy serves as a means to enhance U.S. security, rather than an end in itself. "...likely to become the definitive post-revisionist account."—John Lewis Gaddis. 448 pp., $32.50

Collective Clientelism

The Lomé Conventions and North-South Relations

John Ravenhill. The first analysis of the Lomé Conventions—trade and aid agreements between the European Economic Community and more than sixty developing countries—from the perspective of North-South relations. 416 pp., $37.50

West German Politics

Lewis J. Edinger. A dynamic interpretation of political attitudes and processes in West Germany today, with comparisons to other Western democracies. Now in paperback. 350 pp., maps, tables, $10.00 pa, $30.00 cl

Urbanization in China

Richard Kirkby. Traces population changes and urban growth in China throughout the Communist period, offering likely developments for the near future. 256 pp., $35.00

The October Revolution

Roy Medvedev; with a new preface by the author. "He stands in the first rank of contemporary historians searching for the truth about the Soviet Union's historical experience and its lessons for the future."

—Alexander Rabinowitch.

Now in paperback. 232 pp., $12.50 pa

On Soviet Dissent

Interviews with Piero Ostellino Roy Medvedev. Now in paperback. 158 pp., $10.00 pa

Soviet Marxism

A Critical Analysis Herbert Marcuse. Now in paperback. 271 pp., $12.50 pa

The State-Society Struggle

Zaire in Comparative Perspective

Thomas M. Callaghy."...the definitive work on Mobutu's Zaire."—Rene Lemarchand. Now in paperback. 515 pp., $16.00 pa

Send check or money order to Dept. JN at the address below, including $2.00 per order for postage and handling.

Supplements and Core Texts

Pick One from "Column A"

Why Nations Go to War

Fourth Edition

JOHN G. STOESSINGER, Trinity University

A clear, insightful analysis of twentieth-century warfare that focuses on such critically important questions as whether or not wars are inevitable, the roles of personalities, and how the threshold is crossed from peace to war. The book has been brought up to date for this edition to include the latest developments in the Middle East and Gorbachev's rise to power.

Paperbound. 221 pages. Just Published

Public Opinion COALITIONS, ELITES, AND MASSES Second Edition

HARRY HOLLOWAY, The University of Oklahoma with JOHN GEORGE, Central State University, Oklahoma

A lively but balanced and nonpolemical analysis of public opinion and political behavior in the United States today that presents mass apathy—not the domination of an elite class—as the fundamental threat to American democracy. The Second Edition incorporates the latest scholarship and provides revised or expanded coverage of pluralism, the media, ethnic politics, and individual opinion formation. Paperbound. 304 pages. Just Published

Inventing Reality THE POLITICS OF THE MASS MEDIA

MICHAEL PARENTI

A critique of the political role of the media. Parenti attacks the widely held view that the media are controlled by liberals; examines how and why the media distort and manipulate the news; and shows how the media channel public awareness in directions that are supportive of the existing politico-economic system at home and abroad. Paperbound. 240 pages (probable). Publication: January 1986 from St. Martin's Press...

and One from "Column B"!

American Democracy

LEWIS LIPSITZ, The University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

A major new textbook that provides a comprehensive, mainstream, but unusually stimulating introduction to American government and politics. It covers all the standard topics of the course—the foundations, institutions, and policies of contemporary American political life—but goes beyond this coverage to reveal the short-comings and successes, the constraints and prospects of our system. The organizing concept of the text—the question of "how democratic are we?"—helps students distinguish between the democratic ideal and actual practice. Includes more than 80 boxed inserts that provide a comparative, cross-national perspective; illustrated with more than 200 photographs and more than 50 maps, charts, and graphs. 660 pages (probable). Publication: February 1986

Accompanied by an Instructor's Manual, Study Guide, and Test Item File (available in either bound book format or on floppy disk)

American Public Policy

AN INTRODUCTION Second Edition

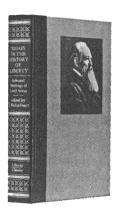

CLARKE E. COCHRAN, Texas Tech University LAWRENCE E. MAYER, Texas Tech University T. R. CARR, University of Arkansas N. JOSEPH CAYER, Arizona State University

A comprehensive, balanced introduction to the major substantive policy issues in American politics today—the economy, energy, the environment, intergovernmental relations, crime, poverty, health care, education, social equality, First Amendment freedoms, and foreign and defense policy. The text combines historical and descriptive material with debate over the issues and alternative solutions, giving students all the information they need to make intelligent decisions on the issues on their own. Brought fully up to date for this edition, the text includes two new chapters—the chapter on intergovernmental policy, and a concluding chapter that summarizes emerging trends and themes.

464 pages (probable). Publication: January 1986

To request an examination copy of any of these texts, please write us on your college letterhead specifying your course title, present text, and approximate enrollment. Send your request to:

ST. MARTIN'S PRESS

SELECTED WRITINGS OF LORD ACTON VOLUME I ESSAYS IN THE HISTORY OF LIBERTY

By John Emerich Edward Dalberg-Acton Edited by J. Rufus Fears

Lord Acton was among the most significant figures in the intellectual life of Victorian England. His enormous erudition won him the admiration of Gladstone and led to his election to the Regius Professorship of Modern History at Cambridge. There he became the organizer and first editor of the Cambridge Modern History.

Acton's famous aphorism "power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely" may be juxtaposed with another Acton line "the development of liberty is the soul of history..." Acton wrote many essays, reviews and letters which reflect his great learning and his deep concern with liberty as the central concept for the understanding of history.

LibertyClassics is publishing a three volume series of Selected Writings of Lord Acton under the editorship of Professor J. Rufus Fears. The first volume contains material related to three of Acton's leading interests: the history of liberty, the particular contribution made by England and America to the course of liberty, and the effect on liberty of contemporary European political developments. Included are such essays as "The History of Freedom in Antiquity," "The History of Freedom in Christianity, and "The Puritan Revolution".

558 + xxx pages.

Forward, index.

Hardcover $15.00, 0-86597-046-7 Softcover $ 7.50, 0-86597-047-5

Prepayment is required on all orders not for resale. We pay book rate postage on prepaid orders. Please allow 4 to 6 weeks for delivery. All orders from outside the United States must be prepaid in U.S. dollars. To order, or for a copy of our catalogue, write: LibertyPress/LibertyClassics 7440 North Shadeland, Dept. P102

Indianapolis, IN 46250

Political Science: The Basics

The Party Goes On The Persistence of Two-Party Politics in the United States XANDRA KAYDEN & EDDIE MAHE, JR.

Two seasoned political professionals describe and analyze the dramatic and totally unexpected rebirth of political parties in the last ten years and consider the impact of the new professional party on the nation's future political life. "A reasoned and important work from two exceptional talents... Essential reading for students of the political process."—WILLIAM E. BROCK, III, Secretary of Labor $17.95

The Rise of Modern Judicial Review

From Constitutional to Judge-Made Law CHRISTOPHER WOLFE

A Constitutional scholar at Marquette University shows how modern Supreme Courts have transformed judicial review from a power to enforce the Constitution into a power to adapt it to new ends and what this momentous change means for Constitutional government. $23.95

A World of Secrets The Uses and Limits of Intelligence WALTER LAQUEUR A Twentieth Century Fund Book

A world renowned scholar provides the first systematic and authoritative evaluation of this country's intelligence gathering machinery—how it has been used, misused, and on occasion, ignored, and what can be done to improve its usefulness to policy-makers. "A vital contribution not only to a better understanding of history but also to a more effective intelligence and counterintelligence dedicated to the protection of democracy."—ZBIONIEW BRZEZINSKI $21.95

Political Crisis/ Fiscal Crisis

The Collapse and Revival of New York City MARTIN SHEFTER

Here is the definitive account of New York's 1975 fiscal crisis, showing that such crises are the traditional way for American cities to bring about needed political change. "The best book on New York City government since Sayre and Kaufman's 1960 classic, Governing New York City. . . . Transcends New York and provides us with fresh insights into the place of the city in the . . national and world economies."—THEODORE LOWI, Cornell University $21.95

The Rise of the Trading State Commerce and Conquest in the Modern World RICHARD ROSECRANCE

The rise of the trading state and what it means for peace in the nuclear age is here set forth in a toughminded yet optimistic analysis by a distinguished Cornell scholar and former State Department analyst. "An excellent blend of theory and history that identifies trends which offer opportunities for constructing a more peaceful international system."—ALEXANDER I. GEORGE $19.95

Schooling for All Class, Race, and the Decline of the Democratic Ideal IRA KATZNELSON & MARGARET WEIR

Schooling for All is a different, badly needed voice in the current debate over the crisis of public education. The authors argue that too much time is spend decrying the decline of standards and too little time lamenting the death of the American dream of public education. "A provocative contribution to the current debates on public education... Controversial must reading,"—SEAN WILENTZ, Princeton University

Basic Books, Inc.

10 East 53rd St., New York, NY 10022 Call toll-free (800)-638-3030

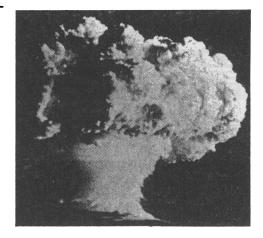

from CHICAGO

New paperbacks

The Logic of Deterrence Anthony Kenny

In this pithy "everyman's guide" to the theory and ethics of nuclear war and deterrence, a noted philospher casts a critical eye on the current policies of both East and West. Putting forward his own strong proposals, Kenny calls for a series of phased and partial unilateral steps by the West, coupled with pressure on the East to reciprocate. $6.95 128 pages

Library cloth edition $20.00

The Imperative of Responsibility

In Search of an Ethics for the Technological Age

Hans Ionas

"Hans Jonas believes that technological developments are in fact so hostile to our deepest needs, indeed to our future, that we must completely rethink our ethics and ethical responsibilities. This book is not simply a call to heighten our moral sensibilities; it is a plea to change them."-Robert Grafstein, The Christian Century $9.95 268 pages

Nuclear Deterrence

Ethics and Strategy Edited by Russell Hardin. John J. Mearsheimer, Gerald Dworkin. and Robert E. Goodin

Essential readings for all concerned with the ethics of nuclear weapons policies, this book brings together the views of both philosophers and strategists. Contributors include: Richard Wasserstrom, Colin Gray, Richard Ullman, Sissela Bok, Robert Tucker, Robert Art, Gerald Dworkin, and Jan Narveson.

Paper $10.95 392 pages (est.) Library cloth edition $25.00

Nationalism and the State John Breuilly

"Breuilly views nationalism from a new perspective. He treats it as a form of politics shaped by the modern state. Using comparative history as his method, he develops a typology in terms of the three basic objectives of nationalist movements: unification, reform, and separation... A remarkable tour de force."-Peter J. Fliess, American Political Science Review

$13.95 422 pages

Political Process and the Development of Black Insurgency, 1930–1970 Doug McAdam

"Students of black politics and social move-ments will find in [McAdam's] work a clear and detailed model of the evolution and dynamics of black protest."—Michael Mitchell, Political Science Quarterly

$11.95 311 pages

"This is a profound, provocative, and disturbing book—disturbing because it challenges accepted political positions of both the left and right as it delineates an 'equal choice' philosophy. It is important—indeed, essential—reading for all those of us who believe that equality and partnership between women and men is a mark of a just society."—Rosabeth Moss Kanter Cloth $19.95 256 pages

Discrimination, Jobs, and Politics

The Struggle for Equal Employment Opportunity in the United States since the New Deal

Paul Burstein

"A highly original study of the struggle for equal opportunity in employment since the New Deal. With complex and compelling arguments that shed new light on the reason, timing, and way that Congress prohibited discrimination in employment, Paul Burstein convincingly challenges conventional wisdom on the genesis of Civil Rights legislation."—William Julius Wilson, University of Chicago

Paper $12.95 258 pages
Library cloth edition $28.00

The Politics of School Reform, 1870–1940 Paul E. Peterson

Drawing upon rarely examined archival data for Atlanta, Chicago, and San Francisco, Peterson demonstrates that the growth of urban public schools—both in political power and in sheer numbers—had as much to do with the demands and influence of trade unions, immigrant groups, and the public more generally as it did with the actions of social and economic elites.

Paper $11.95 256 pages Library cloth edition $25.00

Protecting the Vulnerable A Reanalysis of Our Social Responsibilities Robert E. Goodin

With keen intelligence and unfailing common sense, Goodin extends our concept of social responsibilities beyond their conventional boundaries. He opens up new perspectives on issues central to public policy and of critical concern to philosophers and social scientists as well as to politicians, lawyers, and social workers.

Cloth $25.00 236 pages

The University of CHICAG

5801 South Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637 __

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0003055400237222 Published online by Cambridge University Press

PROVOCATIVE FINDINGS

Saudi Arabia

The Ceaseless Quest for Security

Nadav Safran

Nadav Safran combines vast scholarship and his deep familiarity with Arab culture in the most sophisticated and demystifying book ever written about Saudi Arabia. This book—a masterguide of insight and analysis—traces the roots of Saudi preoccupation with security and its expression in defense and foreign policy through half a century and four reigns.

Belknap

$25.00

Political Murder

From Tyrannicide to Terrorism

Franklin L. Ford

This unprecedented inquiry into assassination crosses civilizations, cultures, religions, and classes to locate the common thread of this often mysterious, always shocking phenomenon.

Does assassination work? Does it ever produce results consistent with the aims of those who attempt it? Or it is "bad politics"? Ford's fast-paced narrative finds intriguing implications in numerous cases.

$29.50

Asian Power and Politics

The Cultural Dimensions of Authority Lucian W. Pye

In a major new book, Lucian Pye reconceptualizes Asian political development as a product of cultural attitudes toward power and authority.

Breaking with modern political theory, he shows how power differs profoundly from one culture to another by contrasting the great traditions of Confucian East Asia with Southeast Asian cultures and South Asian traditions of Hinduism and Islam. He also explores in depth the national differences within these larger traditions.

Belknap

$25.00

The First Socialist Society

A History of the Soviet Union from Within Geoffrey Hosking

Here is a compelling and often tragic history of what Soviet citizens have lived through from 1917 to the present. Hosking explains the political and economic circumstances that have changed Marxist ideology.

$29.50

A History of the Jewish People Edited by H. H. Ben-Sasson

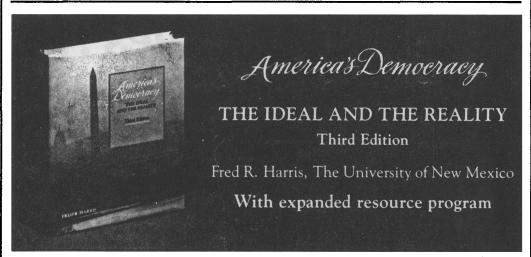

"Here is a work that triumphantly makes available the fruits of a wealth of learning and scholarship that will surely establish new standards for the presentation of research."

-Times Literary Supplement $18.95 paper

at bookstores or from Harvard University Press Cambridge, MA 02138

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0003055400237222 Published online by Cambridge University Press

Prepare your students for active participation in American government

America's Democracy is totally updated and accompanied by a new integrated support program, including Instructor's Manual, Study Guide, Test Item File, Videotapes, and Computer Simulation. Also new to this edition are interviews with Robert and Elizabeth Dole, Potter Stewart, Charles William Maynes, Bill Moyers, and Fred Harris. Practical "How to..." mini-manuals, special "Viewpoint" boxes, and Harris' own fascinating insights bring students close to the issues, institutions, and policies central to American government. Available Now. ©1986, 752 pages, illustrated, hardbound.

New for Texas politics

Public Policy in Texas Second Edition Wendell M. Bedichek / Neal Tannahill Available January 1986

${\cal R}$ ecently published

American Government Policy and Politics Tannahill / Bedichek

Unfinished Democracy The American Political System Second Edition Rodgers / Harrington

Problems of the Presidency A Text with Readings Hinckley

Public Administration The Work of Government Barton / Chappell

For further information write

Meredith Hellestrae, Department SA-APSR 1900 East Lake Avenue, Glenview, Illinois 60025

Scott, Foresman and Company

D. C. Heath brings you, this fall, the Third Edition of James Q. Wilson's critically acclaimed text, American Government: Institutions and Policies. In the following comments, the author reflects on voting, money, and interest groups in the context of American politics.

Students often say that Americans are apathetic—they are less likely to vote than people elsewhere—and that this is probably because elections are meaningless and the candidates mediocre. Do you encounter this?

All the time. And they should talk! It's young persons, of course, who are least likely to vote. But I don't think our low turnout is a sign of "apathy." Rather, it reflects two distinctive features of American life. People here don't attach the same all-consuming importance to politics that people in some other nations do. (Maybe that's not such a bad thing.) And this system provides so many more opportunities to get involved in politics, that voting is relatively less important here than elsewhere.

If these opportunities include interest groups, the students just cite this as another example of the fact that money talks.

Money talks, yes. But so do numbers, letters, rallies, editorials, petitions, media investigations, and just plain political conversation. One of the main problems in teaching American politics is that there is (usually) no "they" that calls the shots and sets the policies. The system is so messy it is hard to describe. It's even too messy to be called "pluralist" in any simple sense of that term.

Do we know enough about these matters for a textbook to come to some conclusion about how much power interest groups have?

Not as much as one would like to know. The political system is awash in money, but it's not clear that the money buys very much. I argue that ideas make as much difference as material interests in explaining what happens in the political system. The text tries to summarize what we know about the impact of money and special-interest pressures. That summary requires the reader to learn to make distinctions, to classify policies into types.

American Government: Institutions and Policies

Third Edition James Q. Wilson

Harvard University and University of California, Los Angeles
1986 Cloth 642 pages
Instructor's Guide/Study Guide/Test Item File/
Computerized Test Items/Video Cassettes/Film Policy

This highly acclaimed and widely adopted classic is now available in a thoroughly updated Third Edition. AMERICAN GOVERNMENT keeps pace with recent developments in the field, linking govermental institutions and political processes with the outcomes of public policy.

Updated through the 1984 elections, and with major revisions in its coverage of the Constitution, policy-making, and interest groups in particular, this authoritative text provides students with a provocative analysis of today's political scene.

D. C. Heath and Company

College Division/125 Spring Street/Lexington, Massachusetts 02173
Or call us, toll-free, at 1-800-225-1388.
In Massachusetts, call collect at 617-863-1948.

AWilson's GOVERNMENT Third Edition

Clarity Without Compromise!

PLACE YOUR ORDER TODAY!

Our new government text has them all talking!

Exclusive interviews with prominent people involved in politics are just one of the many special features of this outstanding new text.

American Government: People, Institutions, and Policies John H. Aldrich, *University of Minnesota*Gary Miller, Charles W. Ostrom, Jr., and David W. Rohde All of Michigan State University

About 608 pages • cloth • Study Guide • Instructor's Manual Test Bank • Computerized Test Bank • December 1985

For adoption consideration, request an examination copy from your regional Houghton Mifflin office.

your regional Houghton Mifflin office.

Houghton Mifflin
13400 Midway Rd., Dallas, TX 75244-5165 • 1900 S. Batavia Ave., Geneva, IL 60134
989 Lenox Dr., Lawrenceville, NJ 08648 • 777 California Ave., Palo Alto, CA 94304

DETERRENCE

ROBERT JERVIS, RICHARD NED LEBOW, AND JANICE GROSS STEIN

With contributions from Patrick M. Morgan and Jack L. Snyder

Distinguished policy analysts draw on psychological propositions to explain why deterrence so often fails to work in practice. Their approach grows out of the compelling recognition of deterrence as a complex psychological strategy that involves decision-makers' emotions, perceptions, and domestic political needs. $27.50

PSYCHOLOGY AND MILITARY RULE IN CHILE

Dictatorship and Oppositions

EDITED BY J. SAMUEL VALENZUELA AND ARTURO VALENZUELA

Ten leading Latin American scholars offer a critical but dispassionate evaluation of the Chilean economy, society, and policy under the present regime. They provide the first comprehensive study of the changes, tensions, and conflicts that have accompanied this most exceptional period in Chilean history.

$35.00

RUSSIA AND ARABIA

Soviet Foreign Policy toward the Arabian Peninsula

MARK N. KATZ

In this comprehensive new study, Katz examines in detail USSR post-1970 foreign policy toward the eight countries of the Arabian Peninsula, identifying and evaluating three possible strategies that the Soviet Union might pursue to extend control over the area.

$30.00

NEW IN PAPERBACK

FORGOTTEN PARTNERSHIP

U.S.-Canada Relations Today

CHARLES F. DORAN

Applying a new analytical framework based upon North American history, cultural misconceptions, and the dynamics of global statecraft, Doran brings the root causes of U.S.-Canadian tensions into sharp relief.

$10.95 paperback $29.95 hardcover

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY PRESS

701 West 40th Street, Suite 275, Baltimore, Maryland 21211

APSA Research Grant Program

The Council of the American Political Science Association announces the 1986 small grant program to support research in all fields of Political Science.

Scope of Award.

Projects must address a significant problem in political science. Funds may be used for such research activities as: travel to archives; travel to conduct interviews; administration and coding of survey instruments; and purchase of data sets. This list is merely illustrative, but specifically excluded from funding are: travel to professional meetings; secretarial costs except for the preparation of final manuscripts for publication; and salary support for the principal investigator.

Eligibility_

Applicants must be APSA members. In addition, the principal investigator must be one of the following:

- (a) a political science faculty member at a college or university that does not award a PhD in political science;
- (b) a political scientist not affiliated with an academic institution.

Funding_

Grants will be awarded annually by the Committee on Research Support. The Council has made $12,000 available for 1986 research grants. Individual grants will not exceed $1,500 and are not renewable.

The awards will be paid directly to the principal investigator. At the end of the project, a financial report must be submitted to the Association, and any unexpended funds returned to the APSA. In addition, grantees will be expected to submit a brief summary of their research accomplishments.

Format_

Proposals should be no more than three pages (single-spaced) with a budget and curriculum vitae attached.

Proposals should describe the project and indicate the precise purposes for which the requested funds will be used. Any financial support the principal investigator is already receiving or anticipates receiving should be specified in the proposal.

Eight (8) copies of the proposal with accompanying budget and curriculum vitae should be submitted to:

APSA Research Grants

American Political Science Association 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036

Submission Deadline_

The Deadline for the 1986 competition is FEBRUARY 3, 1986. Decisions will be announced by May 1, 1986.

KENTUCKY

OPEC: The Failing Giant

MOHAMMED E. AHRARI. A great glut of oil, dropping prices, the threat of insolvency, a divided membership—these developments in the early weeks of 1985 underline the cogency of Mohammed Ahrari's historical study of the OPEC oil cartel and his argument that economic forces, not politics, will ultimately determine OPEC's actions and its fate in the world arena. 288 pages $25.00

America Overcommitted United States National Interests in the 1980s

DONALD E. NUECHTERLEIN. An examination of foreign policy priorities of the United States as it enters the latter half of the 1980s and its future role as a superpower in the 21st century. "A worthwhile contribution to the ongoing debate over the proper role of the U.S. in the contemporary world"—Choice. 256 pages $23.00 cloth, $10.00 paper

The Mood/Interest Theory of American Foreign Policy

JACK E. HOLMES, with a foreword by Frank L. Klingberg. A pioneering account of the overwhelming impact of public moods on American foreign policy. Well-written and convincing with a balanced and fair point of view. 256 pages $24.00

A Season of Inquiry The Senate Intelligence Investigation

LOCH K. JOHNSON. "A valuable contribution not only to an understanding of that very important committee but of the Senate itself. The author chronicles the committee's flaws and problems but on balance gives it high marks"—Foreign Affairs. 328 pages $31.00

The Life of the Parties

Activists in Presidential Politics

RONALD B. RAPOPORT, ALAN I. ABRAMOWITZ, and JOHN McGLENNON, Editors. Based on a survey of more than 17,000 delegates to state presidential nominating conventions, this pathbreaking book examines the characteristics, motivations, and beliefs of a broad group of party activists in the presidential nominating process. 256 pages $24.00

Judicial Conflict & Consensus Behavioral Studies of American Appellate Courts

SHELDON GOLDMAN and CHARLES M. LAMB, Editors. These essays by major scholars of judicial behavior explore the frequency, intensity, and causes of conflict and consensus among judges on American appellate courts. These studies provide new insights into judges' attitudes, values, and role perceptions. 320 pages $30.00

Origins of American Political Parties, 1789-1803

JOHN F. HOADLEY. Hoadley argues convincingly that discernible coalitions existed as early as 1789 and that substantial parties emerged within the first decade after the creation of the new government. 256 pages $24.00

The Future of American-Israeli Relations

A Parting of the Ways?

JAMES LEE RAY. "Ray attributes the success of pro-Israeli elements in American politics to not only Jewish activist lobbyists but also the common religious roots of Jewish and Christian Americans. . . . A well written and powerful statement"—Library Journal. 160 pages $16.00

Inquiries and major credit card orders, phone toll free 1-800-638-3030 (in Maryland and Canada call 301-824-7300). Send mail orders to University Press of Kentucky, P.O. Box 1660, Hagerstown, MD 21741.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS OF KENTUCKY

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0003055400237222 Published online by Cambridge University Press

NEW IN THE PERGAMON GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS SERIES

Series Editors: Richard A. Brody, Norman J. Ornstein, Paul E. Peterson, Nelson W. Polsby & Martin M. Shapiro

CONTEMPORARY CONSTITUTIONAL LAWMAKING The Supreme Court and the Art of Politics

by Lief H. Carter, University of Georgia

"An insightful and imaginative re-examination of some of the perennial problems of constitutional interpretation."

"Lief Carter's CONTEMPORARY CONSTITUTIONAL LAWMAKING is a striking and important addition to the lively debate about the meaning of constitutionalism and the nature of constitutional decision making. It asks the right questions and comes to terms with the most significant problems. Carter has read widely and his book is informed by an impressive array of source material. This book refuses to bow to conventional understandings and the boundaries of disciplines. It is part of a movement to liberate constitutional interpretation from the search for single right answers. It is written in a lively and engaging style. Carter asks us to consider the Supreme Court's 'performance' in maintaining a normatively integrated political community in the United States. His own performance is first rate."

-Professor Austin Sarat, Amherst College

236 pages

1985 hardcover softcover

$32.50 $12.95

To request an examination copy, please write on institutional letterhead to the College Department. Please include course title, enrollment, decision date, and present text.

PERGAMON PRESS

Maxwell House, Fairview Park, Elmsford, NY 10523

=Allen & Unwin=

—The International Perspective—

TOWARDS AN ALTERNATIVE FOR CENTRAL AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

George Irvin & Xabier Gorostiaga, Editors Written by leading international specialists, this timely and important collection of essays on the geopolitical, economic and social aspects of the Central American crisis presents an alternative approach to political and economic development in Central America and the Caribbean. 1985 260pp. HB $27.50 0-04-320172-5 PB $12.50 0-04-320173-3

INDONESIA'S SECRET WAR

The Guerilla Struggle in Irian Jaya Robin Osborne

In 1962 the Melanesian peoples of West New Guinea were subjected to a new colonial power, the Indonesians. This is the story of the OPM—the Melanesian guerilla army that vows that one day it will defeat Indonesia's control. 1985 240pp. HB $25.00 0-86861-511-0 PB $10.50 0-86861-519-6

BRITISH DEMOCRACY AT THE CROSSROADS

Voting and Party Competition in the 1980s Patrick Dunleavy and

Christopher Husbands

Based on the dramatic general election of 1983, this book presents a wide-ranging review of the operations of the electoral system and of party competition in modern Britain. The study uses a variety of election data including a commissioned survey, to offer a concise introduction to the methods of electoral analysis. 1985 320pp. HB $25.00 0-04-324010-0 PB $13.50 0-04-324011-9

SOCIALISM, ECONOMICS AND DEVELOPMENT

Alec Nove

This comprehensive collection of Alec Nove's essays closely examines the links between social theory, economic practice, and development. April 1986 280pp. HB $25.00 0-04-335054-2 PB $11.50 0-04-335055-0

POLITICAL THEORIES OF MODERN GOVERNMENT

Its Role and Reform

Peter Self

In this comprehensive survey of different political theories about the growth, behavior, performance, and reform of modern Western governments, Peter Self offers wide-ranging conclusions about the future of government and politics. 1985 250pp. HB $25.00 0-04-320174-1 PB $11.00 0-04-320175-X

WELFARE POLITICS IN MEXICO

Papering Over The Cracks Peter Ward

The analysis of social welfare provision in developing countries is an important emerging field in development studies. This book shows how a growing technocratic style of management of social welfare provision in Mexico acts to sustain existing political and economic inequality. While the poor benefit, they do so less than other social groups. The London Research Series in Geography, No. 9 March 1986 192pp.

HB $24.95 0-04-361058-7

SIKH SEPARATISM

Rajiv A. Kapur

This is an historical analysis of the vitally important separatist movement which occupied the Golden Temple, assassinated Indira Gandhi and continues to threaten the existence of the world's largest democracy. March 1986 240pp. HB $25.00 0-04-320179-2

SOVEREIGN STATEHOOD

Alan James

This is a remarkably lucid account of the concept central to the relations between nations. Professor James surveys the field fully and makes a genuine contribution to our understanding of this elusive idea. March 1986 250pp. HB $25.00 0-04-320190-3 PB $10.95 0-04-320191-1

8 Winchester Place, Winchester, MA 01890 For Toll Free Ordering Call 800-547-8889; In Ma and Canada Call 617-729-0830

THE AUTHORITATIVE NEW BOOKS

URBAN TRANSIT
The Private Challenge
to Public Transportation
Edited by CHARLES A. LAVE
Foreword by JOHN MEYER

Decades of active government involvement in municipal transportation have left many transit systems on the brink of financial collapse, encouraged inefficient service and have insulated management from the discipline of market forces. Consequently, Urban Transit focuses on the economics of transit matters, the possible alternative modes of urban transit, and the economic and political problems of implementing changes. Concluding that private, free, competitive market forms of transit would solve these problems, Urban Transit is a sourcebook of workable remedies to effect consequential and necessary changes in this increasingly crisis-prone social dilemma.

"Urban Transit is extremely interesting and indeed a landmark."

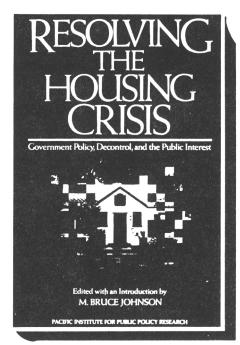

-MARTIN WACHS

Professor of Architecture and Urban Planning UCLA "This is a timely book of profound importance to anyone interested in the future of urban transportation."

-RALPH L. STANLEY

Urban Mass Transportation Administration ca. 354 Pages • ISBN 0-88410-970-4 Paper $12.95 ISBN 0-88410-969-0 Cloth $30.00

To order, or for a catalog of publications, please write: PACIFIC INSTITUTE, 177 Post Street, Dept. K4 San Francisco, CA 94108

RESOLVING THE HOUSING CRISIS Government Policy, Decontrol, and the Public Interest Edited with an Introduction by M. BRUCE JOHNSON

Across the United States, the problems of housing costs and availability have seldom before been so acute: home ownership has become virtually inaccessible to the average person; construction costs are high and rising; and government restrictions increasingly prevent real estate growth. Resolving the Housing Crisis is a comprehensive treatment of the increasingly serious problems in housing and construction. This volume analyzes the underlying contributing factors to the crisis, the responses in land use, housing, and construction policies, and the interaction between the crisis and the legal status of property rights. As a result of this assessment, the authors argue for substantial deregulatory housing and land use reforms.

"Resolving the Housing Crisis" is a first-rate job.... One of the most inclusive contributions to the literature I have ever had the pleasure of reading."

-GEÓRGE STERNLIEB Director, Center for Urban Policy Research Rutgers University

440 Pages • ISBN 0-88410-386-2 Paper $13.95 ISBN 0-88410-381-1 Cloth $26.00

America's Unwritten Constitution

Science, Religion, and Political Responsibility Don K. Price

"A work of deep reflection by a respected doyen is an occasion of considerable significance... He traces the roots of the problem not to the Constitution but to the unwritten constitution of fixed political customs which have come to encrust it. And his approach is distinctly original."

-The Political Quarterly $6.95 paper

Architecture and Politics in Germany, 1918–1945

Barbara Miller Lane With a new Preface by the author

"[This] is the kind of work on which the study of politics and culture will thrive. It is thoroughly researched, beautifully illustrated, and a paradigm of objectivity."

-American Political Science Review $12.50 paper

Ethnic Dilemmas, 1964–1982

Nathan Glazer

"Indispensable to anyone who wishes to understand the domestic problems facing the United States in the 1980s."

-New Leader $8.95 paper

A Common Law for the Age of Statutes

Guido Calabresi Winner of an American Bar Association Certificate of Merit, 1983

"Calabresi has brought his ample juristic talents to bear on a foundational problem of the legal and democratic process . . . in its quality, timeliness and provocativeness [this book] is likely to stand alongside the seminal works of Ronald Dworkin and Grant Gilmore."

-Columbia Law Review $12.50 paper

Ordinary Vices

Judith N. Shklar

"A distinguished book, full of wit, humanity, and insight . . . It is also, and more importantly, a moral philosophy for liberals."—Michael Walzer Belknap $7.95 paper

1676

The End of American Independence Stephen Saunders Webb

"Sixteen Seventy-Six, brilliantly controversial, will invite a rethinking of the whole stretch of our American past."

-New York Times Book Review $9.95 paper

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Cambridge, MA 02138

Chatham House

Publishers, Inc.

Box One, Chatham, New Jersey 07928

TELEPHONE: (201) 635-2059

RACE AND INEOUALITY

A STUDY IN AMERICAN VALUES

Paul M. Sniderman with Michael Gray Hagen

"This book is a valuable link between nitty-gritty analysis of public opinion data and exploration of broad questions of democratic theory. It is particularly impressive in its ability to mix clear, concise explanations of social science disputes for undergraduates with subtle and astute observations that go well beyond simply undergraduate fare."

0-934540-24-1

$8.95 paper

Jennifer L. Hochschild, Princeton University

TIME, CHANCE, AND ORGANIZATIONS NATURAL SELECTION IN A PERILOUS ENVIRONMENT

Herbert Kaufman

"Kaufman's orientation is a substantial challenge to the traditional view of organizations. In place of leadership, he posits chance as a major phenomenon in organizational change. In place of policies designed to prop up failing organizations, he proposes increasing organizational formation rates." Howard Aldrich, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 0-934540-39-X $11.95 paper 0-934540-40-3 $20.00 cloth

BUSINESS AND POLITICS

A Comparative Introduction

Graham K. Wilson

"Graham Wilson provides the most concise and effective discussion of relations between business and government in the cross-national setting that I know of. Students will especially appreciate the clear analytic framework, the useful detail, and the straightforward writing style. Instructors in courses on Business and Government have been looking for this book."

> Richard Lehne, Rutgers University $20.00 cloth

0-934540-50-0

$11.95 paper

0-934540-51-9

THE THEORY OF DEMOCRACY REVISITED Giovanni Sartori

Sartori combines both empirical and normative approaches in this new work on democratic theory that will be published in one volume in cloth and two volumes in paperback. Volume I, The Contemporary Debate, deals, in the main, with issues that have surfaced in the last decades. Volume 2, The Classical Issues, deals with the themes whose discussion began in ancient Greece. Volume 2 does not require the prior reading of Volume 1, and vice versa; however, to encourage the purchase of both volumes, it will be available in a two-volume set for a limited time at a price that is less than the cost of each volume purchased separately.

0-934540-47-0

$9.95 vol. 1 paper

Spring 1986

0-934540-48-9

$9.95 vol. 2 paper

0-934540-49-7 $18.95 2-volume set paper

0-934540-46-2

$40.00 cloth

Prepublication price: $35.00 cloth

For further information about these and forthcoming titles, contact: Edward Artinian, publisher, CHATHAM HOUSE PUBLISHERS, INC., Box One, Chatham, N.J. 07928. Phone: (201) 635-2059.