

The Friends of Liberty

The English Democratic Movement in the Age of the French Revolution

Albert Goodwin

"Original, incisive and elegantly written, The Friends of Liberty puts English radicalism in a British and European setting. It is a major contribution to the debate about radicalism and reform in the age of the French Revolution."—John Brewer, Yale University $20.00

The Diehards

Aristocratic Society and Politics in Edwardian England

Gregory D. Phillips

Utilizing a wide range of public and private papers, Phillips gives us an economic, social, and political study of Edwardian England that alters our understanding of this crisis in British constitutional history. Harvard Historical Studies, 9 $18.50

George I, Elector and King

Ragnild Hatton

In this first modern biography of George I, Hatton places him in a new perspective as a son, husband, and father, as an early Enlightenment ruler, and as a European figure. The book is firmly based on archival material previously unavailable to historians. $15.00

English Chantries

The Road to Dissolution

Alan Kreider

Chantries played a greater role in the daily life of 16th century Englishmen than did monasteries. Kreider explains the social, religious, and numerical significance of the chantries, and expands our understanding of the late medieval Church and the English Reformation. Harvard Historical Studies, 97 $20.00

Jane Austen's Novels

Social Change and Literary Form

Julia Prewitt Brown

"A bracing, learned, logical penetration of Jane Austen's mind, the mind that took marriage, family, and society seriously and integrally. All of Austen's novels benefit from this fine (and well written) critical study."—Ellen Moers $10.00

The Politics of Landscape

Rural Scenery and Society in English Poetry, 1630-1660

James G. Turner

Turner explores the contradictions, unspoken assumptions, and political implications of rural poems during the English Revolution and shows how they served to perpetuate social injustice. $14.50

Harvard University Press • Cambridge, MA 02138

Winstanley the Digger

A Literary Analysis of Radical Ideas in the English Revolution

T. Wilson Hayes

Here is a complete literary analysis of the works of Gerrard Winstanley—the quintessential English Christian communist who founded the utopian Digger colony in Surrey, a radical attempt to till land in common and assert the rights of the rural poor. $16.50

From Memory to Written Record in England, 1066–1307

M. T. Clanchy

Modern literacy is a product of medieval experience. A fundamental change occurred in the 12th and 13th centuries when documents began to be used in quantities for the first time since the fall of the Roman Empire, and the first time ever in England. This is the history of the written word in the English Middle Ages. $18.50

The British Shipbuilding Industry, 1870–1914

Sidney Pollard and
Paul Robertson

In this first modern history of the British shipbuilding industry between 1870 and 1914, authors examine activities and attitudes of the shipbuilders in the context of controversy over the quality of British entrepreneurship. They conclude that the level of managerial performance was high, and unlike other sectors of heavy industry, British shipbuilders maintained their dominant position. Harvard Studies in Business History, 30 $18.50

Now in Paper—

Reform and Reformation

England, 1509–1558

G. R. Elton

"Elton has transformed our understanding of English history . . . His achievement is very great."—New York Review of Books The New History of England $15.00 cloth; $6.95 paper

John Keats

Walter Jackson Bate

"Mr. Bate has written not only the best biography of Keats but the best criticism of his writings. The moment was ripe for a culminating book on Keats and the moment has found the man."—Geoffrey Tillotson Belknap $22.50 cloth; $8.95 paper

Harvard University Press • Cambridge, MA 02138

Sixteenth and Seventeenth-Century England

Renaissance Drama and the English Church Year

By R. Chris Hassel, Jr.

This important and original study demonstrates the existence, among the plays and masques that entertained the English court from 1510 through 1640, of a tradition of drama relevant to the liturgical occasions of the English church year. The study's play-by-play examination of frequent and intense similarities between the works of Shakespeare, Jonson, and others, and the feast days upon which they were performed reveal a hitherto unimagined relationship between Renaissance drama and the English church year.

$15.00

Players' Scepters Fictions of Authority in the Restoration

By Susan Staves

Drawing on Restoration plays, legal materials, primary historical sources, and recent historiography, the author studies the changing fictions of authority in seventeenth-century England and shows how secular democratic myths of authority replaced religious and feudal myths. The importance of secularization in this period has recently been questioned, particularly by some literary critics; in Players' Scepters Staves supports a modified version of the older view with new arguments and new evidence.

$18.50 tent.

University of Nebraska Press

901 North 17th Street, Lincoln 68588

New from St. Martin's Press

The Coward of Minden

The Affair of Lord George Sackville

Piers Mackesy

Fifteen years after his court-martialing for disobedience at the battle of Minden in 1759, Lord George Sackville—later Lord George Germaine—returned to the military scene, as Secretary of State for the American Colonies, to lead an unsuccessful attempt to quash the American Revolution.

Piers Mackesy has written a thorough investigation of Lord George's role in the battle of Minden and a fascinating study of the personality and character of a man once branded a "coward" and "unfit to serve His Majesty in any military capacity whatsoever."

Just published ISBN 0-312-17060-2 260 pages $17.95

Urban Poverty in Britain 1830-1914

J. H. Treble

From his own extensive research and his authoritative knowledge of other historians' work in the field, J. H. Treble has written the first full-scale account of the causes, the experience and the effects of poverty, as well as the contemporary response to poverty in the towns and cities of Victorian and Edwardian Britain.

Just published
240 pages

ISBN 0-312-83463-2
$20.00

Museums of Madness

The Social Organization of Insanity in Nineteenth Century
England

Andrew T. Scull

In Museums of Madness Professor Scull traces developments in Victorian attitudes toward and treatment of mental illness and emotional disturbances. His study not only illuminates important features of nineteenth century society, but also offers suggestive insights into continuously changing definitions of and attitudes toward insanity and mental illness.

Just published ISBN 0-312-55355-2 288 pages, illus. $17.95

Crime and Police in England 1700-1900

J. J. Tobias

In Crime and Police in England 1700-1900 J. J. Tobias draws on much previously unpublished material to provide a detailed picture of the changing patterns of crime and policing in eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain. Dr. Tobias explores the opportunities offered to wrongdoers by industrialization, urbanization and increasingly conspicuous wealth; investigates changes in kinds of crime; and shows how attitudes toward, and means of dealing with criminals changed over time.

Just published ISBN 0-312-54782-X 220 pages $19.95

Order today at 20% discount from:

St. Martin's Press • P. O. Box 5352 • New York, NY 10017

THE AGE OF THE GLORIOUS REVOLUTION OF 1688

Editorial Director:

GERALD M. STRAKA University of Delaware

THE POWER, JURISDICTION, AND PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT SIR ROBERT ATKYNS

Atkins served in Cromwell's revolutionary government, and became Speaker of the House of Lords after the Revolution of 1688. His much-consulted work is regarded as a great presentation of a dominant and controversial question.

London, 1689 $18 50

COLLECTANEA CURIOSA: OR MISCELLANEOUS TRACTS, CHIEFLY COLLECTED FROM THE MANUSCRIPTS OF ARCHBISHOP SANCRIFT

JOHN GUTCH, EDITOR

This group of pamphlets is excellent for the period of the trial of the Seven Bishops, led by Sancroft himself in resistance to the orders of James II to publish his decree of religious toleration.

Oxford, 1781

2 volumes $60 50

LEX PARLIAMENTARIA: OR, A TREATISE OF THE LAW AND CUSTOM OF THE PARLIAMENTS OF ENGLAND.

GEORGE PETTY, With B. GEORGESON, THE DEFENSE OF THE PARLIAMENT OF ENGLAND IN THE CASE OF JAMES II

LONDON, 1692

Two complementary studies. Petty's study was a most influential work and is an indispensable source for a study of the period. George's noted polemic presents a cogent case for Parliament's right to depose tyrannical rulers.

2 volumes in 1: $24 00

A COLLECTION OF EIGHTEEN PAPERS RELATING TO THE AFFAIRS OF THE CHURCH AND STATE

GILBERT BURNET

These are the choicest of Burnet's tracts published during the heat of the Revolution.

London, 1689 $19 00

THE FUNDAMENTAL CONSTITUTION OF THE ENGLISH GOVERNMENT, PROVING KING WILLIAM AND QUEEN MARY OUR LAWFUL AND RIGHTFUL KING AND QUEEN

WILLIAM ATWOOD

Atwood became Chief Justice of New York in 1701. His work is one of the vibrant and basic works of the period.

London, 1690 $25 50

SOME POLITICAL SATIRES OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY

EDMUND GOLDSMID, EDITOR

Selected from the writings of the Earl of Rochester, Sir John Denham, and Andrew Marvell.

This collection covers many rare satires from the era of the Glorious Revolution.

Edinburgh, 1885

2 volumes in 1 $14 50

THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND DURING THE REIGNS OF KING WILLIAM, QUEEN ANNE, AND KING GEORGE I

JAMES RALPH

Ralph was one of the earliest historians to venture an assessment of the Revolution era. In the words of Godfrey Davies, he produced "a careful compilation of much contemporary material, especially pamphlets."

London, 1744-46 *

on 35 mm Microfilm $35 00

THE LIFE AND LETTERS OF SIR GEORGE SAVILE, FIRST MARQUIS OF HALIFAX

EDITED BY H. C. FOXCROFT

This edition by Helen Foxcroft features the work of the most enigmatic pamphleteer-politician of the age, including his famous "Character of a Trimmer."

London, 1898 2 volumes $51 00

THE HISTORY OF THE DESERTION, OR AN ACCOUNT OF ALL THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND FROM THE BEGINNING OF SEPTEMBER, 1688, TO THE TWELFTH OF FEBRUARY FOLLOWING

EDMUND BOHUN

Bohun, who became Governor of Carolina, had access to the hundreds of pamphlets that came across his desk in the wake of the Revolution. From them he compiled what was probably the first history of the Glorious Revolution.

London, 1689 $15 50

STUART TRACTS, 1603-1693

INTRODUCTION BY C. H. FIRTH

This standard work is indispensable for a study of the change and upheaval in seventeenth-century England.

Westminster, 1903 $32 00

A BRIEF HISTORICAL RELATION OF STATE AFFAIRS FROM SEPTEMBER, 1678 TO APRIL, 1714

Narcissus Luttrell

Oxford, 1857

Large 6 Vol. Set: $203 50

THE PHENIX, OR A REVIVAL OF SCARCE AND VALUABLE TRACTS

This collection reflected the taste in politics of the generation that followed the Glorious Revolution.

London, 1707-1708

2 volumes $62 00

STATE TRACTS; BEING A FURTHER COLLECTION OF SEVERAL CHOICE TREATISES RELATING TO THE GOVERNMENT FROM THE YEAR 1660 TO 1689. NOW PUBLISHED IN A BODY, TO SHEW THE NECESSITY, AND CLEAR THE LEGALITY OF THE LATE REVOLUTION

This series of STATE TRACTS provides an excellent run of tracts leading from the Restoration of 1660 to the Glorious Revolution.

London, 1692 $44 00

SELECT DOCUMENTS FOR QUEEN ANNE'S REIGN DOWN TO THE UNION WITH SCOTLAND, 1702-07

GEORGE MACAULAY TREVELYAN

This is the famous companion volume for Trevelyan's masterpiece three-volume history of Queen Anne's reign, containing many key pieces that Trevelyan himself found most fruitful.

Cambridge, 1929 $15 00

BIBLIOTHECA POLITICA; OR AN INQUIRY INTO THE ANCIENT CONSTITUTION OF THE ENGLISH GOVERNMENT

SIR JAMES TYRRELL

The BIBLIOTHECA is a virtual compendium of the Whig ideas and ideals of the late seventeenth century.

London, 1694 $53 00

A COMPLETE COLLECTION OF PAPERS, IN TWELVE PARTS; RELATING TO THE GREAT REVOLUTIONS IN ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND, FROM THE TIME OF THE SEVEN BISHOP'S PETITIONING KING JAMES II TO THE CORONATION OF KING WILLIAM AND QUEEN MARY

This is possibly the first assemblage of key pamphlets manifesting English public opinion published months after the Revolution was completed.

London, 1689 $26 50

SR Scholarly Resources Inc.
104 Greenhill Avenue - Wilmington, Delaware 19805
Telephone: 302-654-7713