ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW PUBLICATIONS

LEGAL ADVISERS AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS

A summary report of a conference, sponsored by the Society on the rôle of legal advisers in the conduct of foreign affairs, and background papers on the organization and procedures in eleven different governments for bringing legal advice to bear in the decision-making process in foreign affairs. Edited by H. C. L. Merillat. Published for the Society by Oceana Publications, Inc. 162 pp. $4.00. Now available.

FOREIGN ENTERPRISE IN INDIA: LAW AND POLICIES

An analysis of the legal aspects of foreign private investment in India, considered in the context of official policies and economic, political, and social trends. Includes chapters on licensing and regulation of industry, company law, exchange controls, price controls, protection of industrial property, and taxation. The first of five country studies undertaken in the Society's research program on legal aspects of foreign investment and economic development. By Matthew J. Kust of the District of Columbia Bar, formerly legal adviser to the U. S. aid mission in India. Published by the University of North Carolina Press. 498 pp. $10.00. To be published in November, 1964.

THE SOCIALIST COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS: ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS

A detailed study of the arrangements among Soviet-bloc countries for coordinating policies and settling disputes, including such organizations as COMECON and the Warsaw Pact. The first study to become available in the Society's research program on movements toward federation and other forms of regional associations of nations. By Kazimierz Grzybowski, recently lecturer on Soviet Law at the Yale Law School, now Senior Research Associate in the World Rule of Law Center, Duke University. Published by the Yale University Press. 287 pp. and Index. $7.50. Now available.

EAST AFRICAN UNITY THROUGH LAW

A study of efforts by Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda, and Zanzibar—former British territories in East Africa—to establish institutions to provide common services and to advance common interests. Traces developments from colonial times to early 1964, with emphasis on legal and administrative problems. The second study to become available in the Society's research program on federal movements. By Thomas M. Franck, Professor of Law, New York University. Published by the Yale University Press. 173 pp. and Index. $5.50. To be published in November, 1964.

ADEN AND THE FEDERATION OF SOUTH ARABIA

A review of the development of the Federation of South Arabia and the accession of Aden. Another study in the Society's series on federal movements. By Jasper Y. Brinton, formerly Judge of the Mixed Courts in Egypt. Published as an Occasional Paper by the Society. 19 pp. and Appendix of Documents, 62 pp. $2.00. Now available.

[Another volume prepared by Judge Brinton in the Society's program on federal movements, entitled Federations in the Middle East, reviews experiments with federations in Libya, Ethiopia-Eritrea, Iraq-Jordan, United Arab States, and the United Arab Republic, with documentary supplements. Published by the Egyptian Society of International Law, the book is being made available at the price of $1.00 (one U. S. dollar). Orders may be placed with that Society at 16 Rue Ramses, Cairo, Egypt.]
