

Three Views on the Living Wage Case

Editorial note

Three articles were submitted on the “Living Wage Case” (and approved by the respective referees). Each article had a different theme and it was decided to publish all three. Inevitably there was overlap in the contents of the articles. Some was removed at the suggestion of the editors, but not all overlap could be removed without harming the integrity of the articles. Each article can still be read as a self-contained paper.