Special Issue: Recent Research on Izapa Archaeology and Iconography

Articles

- Introducing Izapa
  - Authors: Robert M. Rosenswig and Julia Guernsey
  - Page: 255

- A Touch of Teotihuacan at Izapa: The Contents of Two Burials from Group F
  - Authors: John E. Clark and Thomas A. Lee Jr.
  - Page: 265

- Comparative Analysis of Preclassic and Protoclassic Burial Practices at Izapa and in Southeastern Mesoamerica
  - Author: Rosemary Lieske
  - Page: 289

- The Formative to Classic Period Transition at Izapa: Updates from the Izapa Household Archaeology Project
  - Author: Rebecca R. Mendelsohn
  - Page: 309

- Captive Representations and Social Discourse at Izapa and in Late Formative Southeastern Mesoamerica
  - Author: Julia Guernsey
  - Page: 333

- Negotiating Narrative Domains: Izapa’s Place in the Discourse on Early Hieroglyphic Writing
  - Author: Stephanie M. Strauss
  - Page: 347

- Late Formative Flooding of Izapa After an Eruption of Tacaná Volcano
  - Authors: José Luis Muciño, José Luis Arce, Lucio Capra, Ricardo Sauvaldo, and Juan Manuel Sánchez-Núñez
  - Page: 361

- The Early Izapa Kingdom: Recent Excavations, New Dating and Middle Formative Ceramic Analyses
  - Authors: Robert M. Rosenswig, Brendan J. Culleton, Douglas J. Kennett, Rosemary Lieske, Rebecca R. Mendelsohn, and Yahaira Núñez-Córdova
  - Page: 373

- Izapa’s Industrial Hinterland: The Eastern Soconusco Mangrove Zone During Archaic and Formative Times
  - Authors: Hector Neff, Paul H. Barlow, Brendan J. Culleton, Douglas J. Kennett, and John G. Jones
  - Page: 395

- Transisthmian Ties: Epi-Olmec and Izapan Interaction
  - Authors: Christopher A. Pool, Michael L. Loughlin, and Ponciano Ortiz Ceballo
  - Page: 413
Ancient Mesoamerica

Editor
William R. Fowler
Department of Anthropology
Vanderbilt University

Associate Editor: Nancy Gordin, Boston College
Managing Editor: Bruce Bruchac
Editorial Assistant: Marlon V. Escamilla

Editorial Board
M. Charlotte Arnauld, CNRS-Université de Paris I
Panteon-Sorbonne
Joseph W. Ball, San Diego State University
Christopher S. Berns, University of Colorado, Denver
Francis F. Benton, California State University, San Bernardino
Ronald L. Bishop, Smithsonian Institution
Nicholas P. Carter, Harvard University
Arthur Chen, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
Rafael Cobos, Universidad Autónoma de Puebla
George L. Cowgill, Arizona State University
Arthur A. Demarest, Vanderbilt University
Nicholas P. Dunning, University of Cincinnati

Ancient Mesoamerica is a semi-annual international forum for the method, theory, substance, and interpretation of Mesoamerican archaeology, art history, ethnohistory, historical linguistics, and related fields. The journal will publish original research papers, theoretical articles, and substantive reports of field research.

Published by
Vanderbilt University Department of Anthropology
PO Box 1281, Nashville, TN 37236, USA
Telephone: 615-343-9505. Fax: 615-343-0320.

Photocopying Information for users in the USA: http://www.cambridge.org/us/information/rights/contacts/australia.htm; enquiries regarding Spanish-language translation rights (only) should be addressed to the Madrid office, permission enquiries from Australia and New Zealand should be addressed to the Melbourne office, http://www.cambridge.org/us/information/rights/contacts/madrid.htm.

This journal is covered in Thomson-Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index [AI], Current Contents Arts and Humanities, Anthropological Literature and Hispanic American Periodicals Index.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any form or by any means, electronic, photocopying, or otherwise, without permission in writing from Cambridge University Press. General enquiries from the USA, Mexico, and Canada should be addressed to the New York office of Cambridge University Press, http://www.cambridge.org/us/information/rights/contacts/newyork.htm; general enquiries from elsewhere should be addressed to the Cambridge office, http://www.cambridge.org/us/information/rights/contacts/cambridge.htm; permission enquiries from Australia and New Zealand should be addressed to the Melbourne office, http://www.cambridge.org/us/information/rights/contacts/contacts/melbord.htm; permission enquiries from elsewhere should be addressed to the American Antiquity office, http://www.american-antiquity.org/about-us/rights/permissions.

Photocopying Information for users in the USA: Notwithstanding the above, the Item-For Code for this publication (0067-2276/14) indicates that copyright permission for personal use beyond that permitted by Sec. 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law is authorized for users duly registered with the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) provided that the appropriate remittance is paid direct to CCC, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923 USA. Specific written permission must be obtained for all other copying; contact the nearest Cambridge University Press office.

Printed in the United States of America.
EDITORIAL NOTE

Two things about this issue of Ancient Mesoamerica make it different from all that have preceded it. First, you now have in your hands (or on your screen) the last issue of the journal to appear biannually. Since 1990, the journal has appeared regularly twice a year, in late spring and late fall. With the strong encouragement of our Editorial Board and a solid bulwark of support from our Editors, Managers, and staff at Cambridge University Press, we have decided that the time has come to begin publishing three issues a year starting in 2019 – with Ancient Mesoamerica’s 30th volume.

This decision has been under consideration for several years, as we saw increases in submission rate and readership. But we hesitated until we saw the positive effects of the ScholarOne automated submission system and the Cambridge FirstView digital platform. These innovations have afforded us greater copy-flow efficiency, leading to an ability to move manuscripts from receipt to review, revision, and publication in six to nine months. Thus, although we have seen a significant increase in submissions during the past few years, we have no backlog except for papers that that must await their turn as part of a Special Section. It seems only logical, therefore, to increase publication frequency to be able to publish Special Sections (as well as independent submissions) with greater efficiency.

The second difference between this issue and all those that came before it is a bit more obvious in its appearance. Most readers know that we often publish a Special Section with all the articles devoted to a single site, project, theme, or issue in Mesoamerican studies. This is our first dedicated Special Issue. Assuming that this experiment receives approval from authors and readers, the Special Issue could become more common with triannual publication.

We are in the midst of some exciting changes at Ancient Mesoamerica and with Cambridge University Press. We want to take this opportunity to acknowledge everyone who makes this enterprise successful. We thrive on the energy and inspiration from our readers, authors, reviewers, and Editorial Board, and we receive undying support and invaluable resources from our friends at Cambridge University Press. Thank you to all.

William R. Fowler
Nancy Gonlin

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0956536118000445 Published online by Cambridge University Press