AGEING AND SOCIETY

Committed to the understanding of every aspect of human ageing

Ageing and Society is an international journal devoted to publishing contributions to the understanding of human ageing, particularly from the social and behavioural sciences and humanities.

The journal's interpretation of ageing is wide, and articles have included areas such as the politics of ageing, legislation and ageing, recent trends in care of the aged, medicine in society, and retirement. All aspects of the human condition, whether they relate to individuals, groups, institutions or societies, are considered.
Current volume 7, published quarterly.

Instructions to Authors

1. Manuscripts should be sent to:
   Dr. Victor W. Marshall
   Editor-in-Chief,
   Canadian Journal on Aging
   McMurrich Building
   University of Toronto
   TORONTO, Ontario M5S 1A8

2. Articles should be typed double-spaced (including references). Five (5) copies must be submitted.

3. A title page must be included containing name of the author, highest academic degree awarded, name and address of institutional affiliation. A condensed title for a running-page headline, not to exceed 40 letters and spaces should be supplied, along with up to six (6) key words for abstracting purposes.

4. Abstract. Each author is required to furnish, on a separate sheet, an abstract of not more than 100-150 words. A French translation of the abstract is necessary. The author may provide this or accept the expense of the translation of the abstract.

5. Style of Referencing. The articles submitted should be written in either the American Psychological Association (1984) style or the Vancouver style of referencing. More information regarding this may be obtained by writing to the editorial office.

6. Tables. Tables should be typed on separate sheets.

7. Figures. Figures should be submitted in a form ready for publication. The cost of reproduction of complex figures will be borne by the author. Some photographic reproductions may also result in additional costs to the author.

8. Authors’ alterations of the page proofs in excess of 10% of the cost of the composition will be charged to the author.

9. Submission of a paper to the CJA implies that it has not been published, nor is it under consideration by another journal, and if accepted by the CJA is not to be published elsewhere (except as conference proceedings) without permission.

10. Authors should avoid using sexist language in their manuscripts. For further clarification, please refer to the APA guidelines.

Lack of adherence to the instructions may delay consideration of publication.
